Bedside Lovers And Other Goats:

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 The Goat Fish and the Lover's Knot Jack

Driscoll,2017-04-03 Beautifully crafted prose from one of Michigan's most original voices Elmore Leonard said about Jack Driscoll's stories The guy can really write And in The Goat Fish and the Lover's Knot he once again demonstrates in every sentence the grace and grit of a true storyteller The ten stories are mostly set in Michigan's northern lower peninsula a landscape as gorgeous as it is severe If at times the situations in these stories appear hopeless the characters nonetheless and even against seemingly impossible odds dare to hope These fictional individuals are so compassionately rendered that they can hardly help but be in the hands of this writer not only redeemed but made universal The stories are written from multiple points of view and testify to Driscoll's range and understanding of human nature and to how the heart in conflict with itself always defines the larger more meaningful story A high school pitching sensation loses his arm in a public school classroom during show and tell A woman lives all of her ages in one day A fourteen year old boy finds himself alone after midnight in a rowboat in the middle of the lake with his best friend's mother Driscoll is a prose stylist of the highest order a voice as original as the stories he tells Lovers of contemporary storytelling will revel in Driscoll's skill and insight on display in this unique collection Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002 Bedside Lovers (and Other Goats) Joe

Bennett,2002-05-15 Have you ever wondered why you never see a woman playing chess Why half the Swedes in Sweden sing in choirs Why a pig's orgasm lasts for half an hour Or why when they neither chop nor stick chopsticks are so called If you relish laughing out loud at the expense of the pretentious and pompous and like your wit laced with insight and compassion then take heart Following the success of Fun Run and Other Oxymorons Joe Bennett is back with a second helping of the joyously good and the alarmingly absurd The Pope Fidel Castro the Queen Mum and John Prescott are just some of the figures featuring in his latest collection Writing with the clarity of glass and the zest of a child Bennett pursues the lovely and the loathsome with equal vigour in a series of irresistibly humorous and superbly crafted vignettes From tortoise smuggling and culinary fads to bad poetry and good poultry Joe's eclectic range of topics and targets penned with his trademark shrewd humour provide a refreshing perspective on the ordinary strangeness of our lives Walnuts & Goat Cheese Léonard

Lassalle,2015-08 A candid sometimes raw and often humorous auto biographical account of Léonard Lassalle's life written from a child's perspective as he develops into adulthood The book begins with his birth in Nice in 1937 and the early years growing up on a small wild naturist island in the Mediterranean He and his family move to the village of Dieulefit in Provence during World War II where his mother made rabbit stew for the French resistance Léonard then recounts his teenage years spent at the progressive Summerhill School where he finds self confidence learns about girls and discovers English culture Art student life follows in the 1950s in Paris and then in London where he meets a life model who becomes his wife Walnuts Goat Cheese is the first part of Léonard's autobiography The story continues in the book Source of Life where Léonard shares
