

Narrator: One day all the animals decided to get together and work to plant a garden full of corn for roasting. They met early the next morning to do all of the weeding, raking, hoeing, and planting.

Brer Rabbit: Whew! The day is getting really hot and I'm getting tired. Still, I'm NOT going to stop weeding because the others will call me lazy if I do.

Narrator: But one of the animals kept watching Brer Rabbit. Brer Fox knew that Brer Rabbit was about as tricky as they came and he wanted to make sure Brer Rabbit did his share of the work.

Brer Fox: Welllllll so far I have nothing to complain about. Brer Rabbit is working hard and there's no mistake about that. But I expect before long that Brer Rabbit is gonna make up an excuse to stop working. Just wait and see. Wait and see.

Narrator: Brer Fox was right. As the work kept going and the day kept heating up Brer Rabbit began planning and thinking of a way to get out of the sun and away from work. Soon enough he found a way.

Brer Rabbit: Well look at all these prickly weeds here. It sure would be hard on my paw if one of these here thorns pricked it. OW! Oh OW! Look at my paw! One of these here briars got stuck in it. OUCH!

Narrator: Brer Rabbit stuck his paw into his mouth. The other critters told him he should go and wash it quick and pull it out before it got infected.
