The WPA Outcomes Statement—A Decade Later Nicholas N. Behm, Gregory R. Glau, 2014-09-12 The WPA Outcomes Statement A Decade Later examines the ways that the Council of Writing Program Administrators Outcomes Statement for First Year Composition has informed curricula generated programmatic institutional and disciplinary change and affected a disciplinary understanding of best practices in first year composition Provocations of Virtue John Duffy, 2019-03-01 In Provocations of Virtue John Duffy explores the indispensable role of writing teachers and scholars in counteracting the polarized venomous post truth character of contemporary public argument Teachers of writing are uniquely positioned to address the crisis of public discourse because their work in the writing classroom is tied to the teaching of ethical language practices that are known to moral philosophers as the virtues truthfulness accountability open mindedness generosity and intellectual courage Drawing upon Aristotle s Nicomachean Ethics and the branch of philosophical inquiry known as virtue ethics Provocations of Virtue calls for the reclamation of rhetorical virtues as a core function in the writing classroom Duffy considers what these virtues actually are how they might be taught and whether they can prepare students to begin repairing the broken state of public argument In the discourse of the virtues teachers and scholars of writing are offered a common language and a shared narrative a story that speaks to the inherent purpose of the writing class and to what is at stake in teaching writing in the twenty first century This book is a timely and historically significant contribution to the field and will be of major interest to scholars and administrators in writing studies rhetoric composition and linguistics as well as philosophers and those exploring ethics     A Brief Guide to Writing from Readings Stephen Wilhoit, 2006-07 This brief guide teaches students how to write the most common papers assigned in college courses source based essays that summarize analyze critique and synthesize Comprehensive enough to serve as a primary text yet compact enough to serve as a supplement this clear and concise writing guide teaches students how to critically read clearly summarize carefully respond to precisely critique creatively synthesize and accurately quote or paraphrase texts A Brief Guide is a valuable teaching and reference tool that students of many disciplines find useful for class work and for independent study     Engaging with Vocation on Campus Karen Lovett, Stephen Wilhoit, 2021-12-29 Bringing together narratives and theory based analyses of practice this volume illustrates collaborative curricular and co curricular approaches to promoting vocational discernment amongst students in a Catholic university setting Drawing on cultural religious and secular understandings of vocation Engaging with Vocation on Campus illustrates how contemporary issues around vocation work and careers can be addressed within the Catholic intellectual and spiritual tradition Chapters presents a range of contributions from students faculty and staff from a single institution to highlight practical approaches to supporting students in this area and acknowledge the complementary and intersecting roles played by student support services academic staff and on campus ministry in helping students develop an individualised understanding of vocation Considering the value of both curricular or non curricular activities and processes the volume highlights spiritual personal and community value in offering students explicit and tailored support This text will benefit researchers academics and educators with an interest in higher education religious education and the Christian life and experience more broadly Those specifically interested in career guidance theological curriculum and pedagogy and Roman Catholicism will also benefit from this book     Statement ,2000     American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07     The Allyn & Bacon Teaching Assistant's Handbook Stephen Wilhoit, 2003 The Allyn Bacon Teaching Assistant's Handbook A Guide for Graduate Instructors of Writing and Literature is designed to help new and experienced graduate teaching assistants become more effective teachers scholars and members of the profession The Allyn Bacon Teaching Assistant's Handbook recognizes the unique needs of graduate teaching assistants working in English departments and writing programs As both graduate students and teachers many TAs lead a divided life learning how to balance the demands they face and fill the various roles they play can be difficult if not overwhelming First time TAs face the particularly difficult task of learning how to teach while at the same time learning how to succeed as graduate students

Experienced TAs often face the problem of learning how to identify and assume their roles in the profession The Allyn Bacon Teaching Assistant s Handbook is written with both new and experienced TAs in mind It addresses the concerns new TAs face and offers advice and guidance on the basics of teaching for the first time while other advice including the material on professional development gaining administrative experience and preparing for the job market will help more experienced TAs The Handbook offers practical time tested advice that TAs can apply directly to their own classes and lives
