Richard Meek complicates our conception of Shakespeare as either a man of the theatre or a literary dramatist, suggesting ways in which his works themselves debate the question of text versus performance. Beginning with an exploration of the pictorialism of Shakespeare's narrative poems, the book goes on to examine several moments in Shakespeare's dramatic works when characters break off the action to describe an absent offstage event, place or work of art. Meek argues that Shakespeare does not simply prioritise drama over other forms of representation but rather that he repeatedly exploits the interplay between different types of mimesis: narrative, dramatic and pictorial, in order to beguile his audiences and readers. Setting Shakespeare's works in their literary and rhetorical contexts and engaging with contemporary literary theory, the book offers new readings of Venus and Adonis, The Rape of Lucrece, Hamlet, King Lear and The Winter's Tale. The book will be of particular relevance to readers interested in the relationship between verbal and visual art theories of representation and mimesis, Renaissance literary and rhetorical culture and debates regarding Shakespeare's status as a literary dramatist      The Aeneid of Virgil (the First Three Books) Virgil, 1914      Public Opinion, 1900      Student, 1889      The Student, 1889      An Introduction to the Industrial History of England Abbott Payson Usher, 1920 Library owns c 1 2
