Natural Houses Arthur Andersson,Chris Wise,2010-04-07 For Arthur Andersson and Chris Wise the fundamental elements that give buildings meaning are found in nature Imbuing day to day activities with poetry and awe their designs address both pragmatic needs and the psychological yearning for refuge and contemplation centering and escape joy and comfort Their work is best experienced through the senses Tactility expressed through an eloquence of craft the use of textured materials and the logical design of structural systems gives their buildings a rightness within the landscape In their hands daylight becomes a building material Small wall apertures three sided dormers clerestories and other details grab bend and thread sunlight from one end of their houses to the other Full of light and atmosphere the houses are the physical embodiment of the great Charles Moore s influential tenet that architecture is about enhancing a sense of place Natural Houses presents seven of the Austin Texas based firm s exquisitely crafted projects Precise and cool with forms often derived from the American vernacular of barns and cottages these are painstakingly crafted houses made from regionally appropriate and aesthetically timeless materials Natural Houses presents a range of sites and residences from a small cabin in the woods to a multibuilding camp Sited on a cliff the House Above Lake Austin uses terraces to descend its steeply hilly site The building s simple materials celebrate the site and climate not by drawing attention to themselves but by blending in The stone foundation is similarly tied to the natural stone of the mountain Smooth plaster walls above the stone foundation appear to have been chiseled from the rock itself In a deceptively simple boathouse the walls fold down to become impromptu diving platforms Exceptional photography captures the light and atmosphere of each project setting and illustrates how the firm rigorously expresses the design concept through detailing and construction An introduction by Rick Sundberg of Olson Sundberg Kundig Allen Architects and essays by Jen Renzi and Frederick Steiner chart the firm s evolution and influences

The New 100 Houses X 100 Architects Robyn Beaver,2012 Collection of 100 contemporary designer homes by 100 individual architects from around the world Both an object of beauty itself and valuable source of inspiration The New 100 Houses x 100 Architects is a celebration of diversity Satisfying our natural and abiding curiosity about how other people live and our endless quest to improve our own homes this superb volume showcases architectural trends provides insight into vernacular residential architecture and is a rich source of ideas for every house designer professional or armchair Many of the houses portrayed in this book turn conventional notions of appearance and design upside down in their quest for perfection while many reflect the emerging trend toward sustainable design while proving energy efficiency and style are not mutually exclusive concepts The 100 houses featured designed by 100 different architects range from deceptively simple to over the top gorgeous Among the awe inspiring projects in this book are contemporary houses slotted into traditional settings such as a modern project on a cobbled street in Ljubljana Slovenia a utilitarian structure nestled in a vineyard in pastoral New Zealand a concrete polyhedron incised into a minuscule spot in the Tokyo metropolis and a house on the Indian Ocean in Mozambique whose colours contrast against the azure blues of sea and sky monograph also includes an incisive introduction by Patrick Tighe and is augmented by two essays by Thom Mayne and Stephen Phillips who also provide clarity and insightful discourse on how Tighe's work is continuously in transition and evolving and how he's rethinking and engaging in a discourse to defamiliarize the familiar Bali By Design Kim Inglis, 2012-10-10 Enjoy this thorough exploration of Balinese design with stunning photographs of the most exemplary architecture and interiors in Bali. Bali has long been a creative inspiration for the world providing exciting new architectural ideas that are emulated today in homes and hotels everywhere. This book covers all Balinese interior design and residential architecture trends providing coverage of the latest and best Balinese architecture and interior design work happening today. Featuring 25 stunning contemporary homes it showcases the ideas of a new generation of talented designers both Indonesian and international. Each of these extraordinary houses presents creative new solutions for age-old demands illustrating how clever Balinese architecture and design can help you achieve a modern sensibility. Many of these homes even propose methods of reducing power consumption while others represent urban versions of the tropical Bali design style that has its roots in a traditional rural environment. Take inspiration from the selection of artful furnishings in open-air rooms, the inclusion of natural stone in shady courtyards and swimming pools, and the plethora of handcrafted surfaces, objects, and artifacts. Then learn how Balinese architecture combines modern technology with exotic local materials like Balinese sandstone, volcanic rock, recycled ulin wood, and more. Boasting over 300 stunning photographs by Danish photographer Jacob Termansen and an insightful text by British author Kim Inglis, this book is a fitting testament to the originality and talent of the Balinese design world. With Bali by Design at your side, discover how you too can replicate the tastefulness of Balinese interior design and architecture in your own home.

Elegant Small Homes of the Twenties Chicago Tribune, 2013-01-16 In 1927 the Chicago Tribune sponsored a competition for trained men of talent incorporating into the small home ideas of real worth, types of rare charm, and the best possible plans for comfort and convenience. This collection spotlights the challenge's top results, presenting the nineteen prize-winning designs for five and six room houses, plus eighty additional sets of the best architectural plans. A new introduction by Daniel D. Reiff, Ph.D., adds interesting detail about the competition and the competitors. These fascinating snapshots of American domestic architecture of the 1920s include glimpses of New England and Southern colonials, Normandy cottages, stately Italianate dwellings, and other styles. Each of the designs features a floor plan and exterior views of the house. Architects, architecture buffs, and historians will prize these authentic renderings of the leading designs in American architecture of nearly a century ago.
