

The image features the BBC News logo centered on a stylized globe. The globe is rendered in a light gray tone with visible continents and is encircled by two thick, dark red ribbons that twist around it. A red rectangular box is superimposed over the center of the globe, containing the text 'BBC NEWS' in white. The background is a light gray with faint, thin white lines forming a geometric pattern of triangles and polygons. Some of these lines are labeled with text in a small, light gray font: 'SUD DE L'AFRIQUE' is located in the upper right, 'SUD' is at the top center, 'AFRIQUE' is on the right side, 'EUROPE' is at the bottom right, 'ASIE' is at the bottom left, and 'AMERIQUE' is on the left side.

Managing EU-US Relations Rebecca Steffenson, 2005-10-07 This book examines developments in E U U S political and economic relations in the 1990s It contributes to the existing literature by combining knowledge about actors and institutions to outline the transatlantic decision making process It focuses not only on how states co operate but how they effectively govern the transatlantic marketplace and the international political order through transatlantic institutions Studying transatlantic governance enables us to understand not only how domestic or E U level decision making structures affect transatlantic decisions but also how transatlantic decisions affect domestic institutions In short employing decision making structures as an analytical approach helps us identify who governs and how and who or what determines policy outcomes This book is the result of a comprehensive research project and it includes detailed case studies on E U U S efforts to fight people trafficking E U U S regulatory co operation in the form of Mutual Recognition Agreements and the transatlantic trade dispute over bananas The book is aimed at anyone with an interest in what transatlantic relations entail outside the confines of NATO security

Humanitarian and Military Intervention in Libya and Syria Aran M. Lewis, 2022-12-30 This book explores the contradictions in Britain s humanitarian and military intervention in Libya and Syria beginning with the Arab spring in 2010 The book assesses the contradictions between the expressed humanitarian intentions of British military interveners and the impact of their actions on the putative beneficiary states It demonstrates that as a result of foreign intervention both Libya and Syria were rendered non functional as unitary nations and suffered extensive harm to their people and infrastructure To evaluate the effectiveness and credibility of humanitarian warfare the author conducts a thematic analysis of debates on Libya and Syria in the House of Commons The book provides a detailed study of intentions and motives expressed by Members of Parliament of consequent British state actions and their outcomes and of MPs reactions to outcomes It provides ample evidence of duplicity insincerity indifference to harm and ulterior motives for violence that undermine moral claims and support the argument that although humanitarian warfare may be possible the leading Western activist states Britain France and the USA are poorly qualified to carry it out Illustrating a systemic failure of strategy and accountability in British foreign policy this book will be of interest to scholars and graduates of Humanitarian Studies International Relations and Military Studies

Reimagining Nigeria's Educational System Joseph A. Balogun, 2023-09-20 This book assesses the challenges within the Nigerian educational system and provides a concrete plan to revitalize the low performing system by strengthening high stakes testing at all levels In Nigeria many citizens believe that the solution to the country s low performance in education is to eliminate high stakes standardized testing High stakes testing refers to applying standardized student achievement tests as a primary mechanism to evaluate students teachers and their school s performance This book argues that the poor quality of education and low ranking of Nigeria s educational system is not related to the negative consequences of high stakes testing but rather is due to many intrinsic factors By conducting a comparative analysis of six high performing education systems worldwide the book offers a comparative summative evaluation of the educational system and offers recommendations This book will be of interest to policymakers and scholars in the fields of African education higher education quality and global studies African studies management and administration leadership and professional development studies Joseph Abiodun Balogun is former Dean and retired Distinguished University Professor at the College of Health Sciences Chicago State University USA Visiting Professor Program Consultant at the Centre of Excellence in Reproductive Health Innovation University of Benin Nigeria and President CEO Joseph Rehabilitation Center Tinley Park Illinois USA TV World ,1998-06 International business magazine for television Medical Law and Ethics Jonathan Herring,2022 Medical Law and Ethics covers the core legal principles key cases and statutes that govern medical law alongside the key ethical debates and dilemmas that exist in the field Carefully constructed features highlight these debates drawing out the European angles religious beliefs and feminist perspectives which influence legal regulations Other features such as a shock to the system public opinion and reality check introduce further socio legal discussion and contribute to the lively and engaging manner in which the subject is approached Digital formats and resources The ninth edition is available for students and institutions to purchase in a variety of formats and is supported by online resources The e book offers a mobile experience and convenient access along with functionality tools navigation features and links that offer extra learning support www.oxfordtextbooks.co.uk/ebooks The online resources include complete bibliography and list of further reading links to key cases a video from the author which introduces the book links to key sites with information on medical law and ethics and answer guidance to one question per chapter
