Emmy Award Winning Nighttime Television Shows, 1948-2004 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-09-11 Since the early days of television well before most households had a set the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences has been handing out honors for the industry's best efforts. Now fans can read about their favorites and perhaps rediscover some forgotten pleasures in this reference to prime time and nighttime Emmy winners. Beginning with the heated charade contest known as Pantomime Quiz which won Most Popular Program of 1948 in the first Emmy Awards ceremony held in 1949 each of more than 100 winning shows gets star treatment with an entry that includes the year of award or awards air times hosts guests casts and a full discussion of the show's history and run. Many of the entries include original interviews with cast or crew members. With such rich information each show's entry constitutes a chapter in the history of television through the story of the show and the people who made it happen. The best of variety drama game shows comedies adventures and many more categories are featured. An appendix offers interesting facts and figures and ranks shows according to such statistics as longest run longest delay from debut to win and most Emmys won.

Prime Time Soap Operas Douglas M. Snauffer, 2009-09-03 Prime time soaps are often revered long after their runs on television have ended as Dallas Twin Peaks and Beverly Hills 90210 readily demonstrate. Due to their profound impact it's easy to forget how recently the genre itself was born. Dallas premiered in 1978 and was originally intended to air solely as a five part mini series. Then in 1981 producer Aaron Spelling stepped in and introduced his own ultra glitzy entry Dynasty. Between these two mega hits the era of the nighttime soap was born. Soaps soon spun off into non traditional avenues as well in sitcoms like Filthy Rich and the supernatural drama Twin Peaks. Then with the arrival of the more youth oriented Fox Network producers were able to hook an entirely new generation on programs such as Beverly Hills 90210 Melrose Place and Party of Five. Pay cable channels have also stepped into the picture and now act as trendsetters with hits like Sex and the City Six Feet Under The Sopranos and The L Word. Now from the spiritually themed 7th Heaven to the naughty neighbors of ABC's Desperate Housewives soaps dominate prime time. Prime Time Soaps covers all the major shows within the soap opera genre and also investigates all the ways that soaps have contributed to the development of more general television trends. Interviews with producers actors and other artistic collaborators also supplement this revealing and entertaining account. Even outside of their genre these shows continue to influence current programming. Few series on TV today are purely episodic instead containing on going storylines involving the personal dilemmas of their characters. Another very recognizable contribution from soaps occurred on the evening of March 21 1980 when Dallas finished out its third year with J R Ewing being shot by an unknown assailant leaving fans to wait until the fall for the resolution. This was the beginning of the cliffhanger endings that are now implemented by just about every series on television. Prime Time Soaps covers all the major shows and also investigates all the ways that soaps have contributed to the development of more general television trends.
