Bearing Meaning Robbie Kahn,1998 Childbirth and Authoritative Knowledge Robbie Davis-Floyd,Carolyn F. Sargent,1997-08-27 This benchmark collection of cross cultural essays on reproduction and childbirth extends and enriches the work of Brigitte Jordan who helped generate and define the field of the anthropology of birth The authors focus on authoritative knowledge the knowledge that counts on the basis of which decisions are made and actions taken highlights the vast differences between birthing systems that give authority of knowing to women and their communities and those that invest it in experts and machines Childbirth and Authoritative Knowledge offers first hand ethnographic research conducted by anthropologists in sixteen different societies and cultures and includes the interdisciplinary perspectives of a social psychologist a sociologist an epidemiologist a staff member of the World Health Organization and a community midwife Exciting directions for further research as well as pressing needs for policy guidance emerge from these illuminating explorations of authoritative knowledge about birth This book is certain to follow Jordan s Birth in Four Cultures as the definitive volume in a rapidly expanding field Normal Childbirth Susan Downe,2008-05-30 This new edition builds on the strengths of the popular first edition with updated national and international data and the most recent debate around the controversial area of childbirth With the increasing risk of litigation there can be a tendency to classify women as at risk if they present with even a hint of a problem This is a contentious area and midwives need to be aware of the wide parameters of normal in order to practise autonomously effectively and safely This book provides an evidence based source for all midwives and other health professionals with an interest normal birth Explores the wider range of normal childbirth that is unique to individual mothers and babies Challenges the assumptions underpinning current beliefs and attitudes Updated statistics both national and international Latest research and debate Medical Humanities Review ,1996 Tikkun ,2000 Women's Issues ,1997 Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering ,2003 Milk Teeth Robbie Pfeufer Kahn,2008 Written as a year long journal Milk Teeth chronicles sociologist Robbie Pfeufer Kahn s struggle to achieve a loving relationship with her black Labrador puppy Laska Mirthful mischievous intelligent and strong willed Laska challenges her owner s attempts at leadership and affection Feminist Bookstore News ,1996 Researching Lived Experience Max van Manen,2016-06-16 Bestselling author Max van Manen s Researching Lived Experience introduces a human science approach to research methodology in education and related fields The book takes as its starting point the everyday lived experience of human beings in educational situations Rather than rely on abstract generalizations and theories in the traditional sense the author offers an alternative that taps the unique nature of each human situation First published in 1990 this book is a classic of social science methodology and phenomenological research selling tens of thousands of copies over the past quarter century Left Coast is making available the second edition of this work never before released outside Canada Researching Lived Experience offers detailed methodological explications and practical examples of inquiry It shows how to orient oneself to human experience in education and how to construct a textual question which evokes a fundamental sense of wonder and it provides a broad and systematic set of approaches for gaining experiential material which forms the basis for textual reflections The author Discusses the part played by language in educational research Pays special attention to the methodological function of anecdotal narrative in research Offers approaches to structuring the research text in relation to the particular kinds of questions being studied Feminist Narratives and the Sociology of Religion Nancy Nason-Clark, Mary Jo Neitz, 2001 Despite the steady growth of feminism in sociology little attention has been paid to feminist research on religion Nason Clark and Neitz begin to fill this gap asking leading feminist sociologists of religion to reflect on their work and lives In addition the editors include responses from the next generation of feminist sociologists of religion to see how their experiences differ from those of their teachers The essays show how these feminist scholars construct narratives of their lives and work even among contradictions and interruptions They show how the researcher the researched and the research method are all closely intertwined And they show how these researchers strive to make heard the voices of those they have chosen to study Feminist Narratives and the Sociology of Religion is an essential text to see how feminist perspectives shape this field Published in cooperation with the Association for the Sociology of Religion Anthropology and Humanism ,1997 Illinois Documents List ,1996 Being Born in a Nation that is Dying Cynthia Gabriel, 2003 Sex, Self and Society Tracey L.
