Romancing the Margins? Gabriele Griffin, 2000 Explores the dynamics and definitions of Lesbian and Female Bisexual writing throughout this decade It explains the challenges of being gay and minority and recent efforts to eliminate racist and anti gay themes in writing encapsulating the sense of liberation and uncertainty in the advancement of lesbian movements and theories

Engaging Undergraduates in Publishable Research: Best Practices Traci A. Giuliano, Jeanine L. M. Skorinko, Marianne Fallon, 2019-11-20 Although many articles and books have been written about conducting research with undergraduates there is a dearth of research on the process of publishing with undergraduates Thus in this research topic we assembled a collection of 43 articles from 98 researchers worldwide who are passionate about and have had success in publishing high quality peer reviewed journal articles with undergraduates The diverse articles represent a wide range of practices to help researchers publish with undergraduates including structuring the curriculum to promote undergraduate research and publication optimizing research experiences for undergraduates training students in implementing advanced techniques accessing special populations or conducting research in off campus settings addressing institutional and career challenges for faculty and increasing inclusion and diversity Each article provides a unique and diverse perspective that nevertheless resonates across contexts and situations We hope that the ideas models techniques and practices in these articles will motivate and inspire readers to begin continue or rethink how they engage undergraduates in publishable research we also hope to stimulate empirical and quantitative research on the effectiveness of these ideas models techniques and practices

Love and Freedom Jorge N. Ferrer, 2021-06-24 In Love and Freedom Jorge Ferrer proposes a paradigm shift in how romantic relationships are conceptualized a step forward in the evolution of modern relationships In the same way that the transgender movement surmounted the gender binary Ferrer defines how a parallel step can and should be taken with the relational style binary This book offers the first systematic discussion of relationship modes beyond monogamy and polyamory as well as introduces the notion of relational freedom as the capability to choose one's relational style free from biological psychological and sociocultural conditionings To achieve these goals Ferrer first discusses a number of critical categories specifically monoprivilege polyphobia and polyprivilege monophobia that mediate the contemporary mono poly wars that is the predicament of mutual competition among monogamists and polyamorists The ideological nature of these mono poly wars is demonstrated through a review of available empirical literature on the psychological health and relationship quality of monogamous and polyamorous individuals and couples Then after showing how monogamy and polyamory ultimately reinforce each other Ferrer articulates three relational pathways to living in between through and beyond the mono poly binary fluidity hybridity and transcendence Moving beyond that binary opens a fuzzy liminal and multivocal relational space that Ferrer calls novogamy In this groundbreaking book readers will learn practical tools to not only transform jealousy but also enhance their relational freedom while being aware of key issues of diversity and social justice They will also learn novel criteria to evaluate the success of their intimate relationships and be introduced to a transformed vision of romantic love beyond both monocentrism and emerging polynormativities
