Music + Revolution Richard Barone,2022-09-15 Even before the Beatnik Riots of 1961 New York City s Greenwich Village was the epicenter of revolutionary movements in American music and culture But in the early 1960s and throughout the decade a new wave of writers and performers inspired by the folk music revival of the 1950s created socially aware and deeply personal songs that spoke to a generation like never before These writers Bob Dylan Buffy Sainte Marie Janis Ian and Phil Ochs to name a few changed the folk repertoire from traditional songs to songs sprung from personal contemporary experiences and the nation s headlines raising the level of political self expression to high art Message and music merged and mirrored society In Music Revolution Greenwich Village in the 1960s Richard Barone unrolls a freewheeling historical narrative peppered with personal stories and insights from those who were there Illustrated with contemporaneous portraits of the musicians by renowned photographer David Gahr it celebrates the lasting legacy of a pivotal decade with stories behind the songs that resonate just as strongly today     Jazz Times ,2000     The Conscious

Lyons, 2021-02-23 For many the Beatles offered a delightful alternative to the dull and the staid while for others the mop top haircuts the unsettling music and the hysterical girls that greeted the British imports wherever they went were a symbol of unwelcome social and cultural change This opposition to the group more widespread and deeper rooted in Chicago than in any other major American city increased as the decade wore on especially when the Beatles adopted more extreme countercultural values At the center of this book is a cast of characters engulfed by the whirlwind of Beatlemania including the unyielding figure of Mayor Richard J Daley who deemed the Beatles a threat to the well being of his city the Chicago Tribune editor who first warned the nation about the Beatle menace George Harrison's sister Louise who became a regular presence on Chicago radio the socialist revolutionary who staged all of the Beatles concerts in the city and used much of the profits from the shows to fund left wing causes the African American girl who braved an intimidating environment to see the Beatles in concert a fan club founder who disbelievingly found herself occupying a room opposite her heroes when they stayed at her father's hotel the University of Chicago medical student who spent his summer vacation playing in a group that opened for the Beatles on their last tour and the suburban record store owner who opened a teen club modeled on the Cavern in Liverpool that hosted some of the biggest bands in the world Drawing on historical and contemporary accounts Joy and Fear brings to life the frenzied excitement of Beatlemania in 1960s Chicago while also illustrating the deep seated hostility from the establishment toward the Beatles
