Why Knocked Up? CAROL CASSELL, PhD,2015-09-24 Why Knocked Up The Paradox of Sex Magical Thinking and Accidental Pregnancy in This Age of Contraception The United States birth rates are at record lows yet our rates of accidental pregnancy are still sky high 1 out of 2 is unplanned unwanted Peeling back the layers of conflict denial hope dreams and myths about pregnancy this provocative book unravels the paradox of why we have so much Knocked Up pregnancy even though contraceptives are readily available Dr Cassell illustrates how magical thinking about sex and our cultures quirky sexual norms combined with the far rights efforts to block contraception abortion and sex education escalates the crisis She uniquely describes the Knocked Up Paradox as a Black Elephant a cross between a black swan an unexpected event with huge complications and the elephant in the room a problem no one wants to admit is there She delivers a powerful argument as to why unwanted pregnancy merits our concern even if we arent directly involved we all pay a high price dealing with the complex tangle of personal dilemmas and the domino effect on families it creates Cassell assures us that reducing Knocked Up pregnancies isnt a hopeless challenge and endorses a range of effective and edgy resolutions

Angela Carter Anna Kerchy,2008 This study fills a major gap in Carter scholarship by examining the interrelations of the ideological constructions and the subversive counter performances of bodies texts identity and femininity particularly in their connection with the grotesque in Carter s final novel trilogy The Passion of New Eve 1977 Nights at the Circus 1984 and Wise Children 1992    The New York Times Book Review ,1995-09    Indian Review of Books ,1999    A Dangerous Friendship Robin Merle,2025-10-28 With dark humor this women s fiction novel is about obsessive friendship secrets and a life changing summer in the wild 1980s of New York City In 1980s New York City aspiring writers Tina and Spike bond in a complex all consuming friendship that will change their lives forever Desperate to redefine herself after a failed marriage twenty nine year old Tina embarks on a thrill seeking journey to feel alive again When she meets thirty five year old Spike a beautiful seductive seemingly invulnerable woman she becomes enthralled by the older woman s stories of NYC power brokers sex wealthy men and her past Tina latches on to Spike as someone who can save her from mediocrity and show her how to be the kind of woman who can have power over men both in romance and in life Chasing adventure and the writing life Tina and Spike rent a cabin together for the summer in the rural backwoods There they go on a wild manic darkly humorous journey involving dive bars drugs men and all night dancing becoming increasingly psychologically entangled in each other s lives along the way But eventually Tina realizes just how dangerous Spike is and is forced to act to save herself Filled with New York wit and fast paced dialogue this is a story of loss betrayal survival and blurring the line between attraction and peril    Fiction ,2004    The Academy ,1908    Asian American Fiction After 1965 Christopher T.

Fan,2024-04-23 After the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act loosened discriminatory restrictions people from Northeast Asian countries such as South Korea Taiwan Japan and eventually China immigrated to the United States in large numbers Highly skilled Asian immigrants flocked to professional managerial occupations especially in science technology engineering and math Asian American literature is now overwhelmingly defined by this generation s children who often struggled with parental and social expectations that they would pursue lucrative careers on their way to becoming writers Christopher T Fan offers a new way to understand Asian American fiction through the lens of the class and race formations that shaped its authors both in the United States and in Northeast Asia In readings of writers including Ted Chiang Chang rae Lee Ken Liu Ling Ma Ruth Ozeki Kathy Wang and Charles Yu he examines how Asian American fiction maps the immigrant narrative of intergenerational conflict onto the two cultures conflict between the arts and sciences Fan argues that the self consciousness found in these writers works is a legacy of Japanese and American modernization projects that emphasized technical and scientific skills in service of rapid industrialization He considers Asian American writers attraction to science fiction the figure of the engineer and notions of the postcolonial modernization theory and time travel and what happens when the dream of a stable professional identity encounters the realities of deprofessionalization and proletarianization Through a transnational and historical materialist approach this groundbreaking book illuminates what makes texts and authors Asian American    The Living Age ,1903    The New International Year Book ,1916    Short Fiction Charles H.
