Global Yorùbá Toyin Falola,2024-11-19 In Global Yorùbá renowned scholar Toyin Falola covers the history people traditions environment religion spirituality cosmology culture and philosophy of one of Africa's largest cultural groups the Yorùbá all while considering the people's relationship with their immediate and distant neighbors. Falola examines how the Yorùbá people have adapted to their environment and tapped it to re-invent their civilization, shape their culture and traditions and inform their socioeconomic relations with their neighbors. Families and Religion Christel Gärtner, Linda Hennig, Olaf Müller, 2025-03-20 This comparative study examines the transmission of religion in families in Germany, Italy, Hungary, Finland, and Canada. The authors rely on the widely shared argument that religious change can primarily be understood as an intergenerational process. Based on a mixed methods design, the book investigates the question of how, when, exactly, and under what conditions the following generations become less religious than the previous ones. From the perspective of familial and historical generations, the authors examine the significance of religious socialization for the transmission of non-religious worldviews, affiliation, practice, and identity. According to a central finding, religious change takes place primarily in the phase of adolescence against the background of the respective social context.
