Australia Top 500 Companies:

Australia's Top 500 Profit Earners ,1984 Australia's Top 500 Companies , Corporations Law in Australia
Roman Tomasic,Stephen Bottomley,Rob McQueen,2002 The second edition of this text incorporates the latest changes to Australian corporations law up to and including the Corporations Act 2001 and the Financial Services Reform Act 2001 Like the 1st edition this text is written particularly for undergraduate law students The book introduces students to Australian corporate law in a way that is informed by theory and policy Throughout the book the authors draw upon materials from fields such as economics sociology and politics to provide a contextually relevant account of modern corporate law Ample references and pointers are provided to policy debates contemporary issues and to further reading The authors bring considerable experience in interdisciplinary corporate law teaching and research The authors aim to stimulate the reader into further critical analysis of corporate law issues and to equip them with the capacity to respond in an informed way to future changes and developments The book also encourages the reader to independently pursue further research in areas of corporate law Each of the 25 chapters has been revised and updated The book deals with Introduction the history of corporate law and key themes and perspectives Corporate Structures and Regulation including the structure of Australian corporate law ASIC s role and powers and the role of auditors Corporate Obligations including corporate capacity contractual and criminal liability Corporate Governance membership and meetings directors duties shareholders rights Corporate Finance including share and debt capital the Managed Investments Act 1998 and fundraising Securities and Takeovers Corporate Rescues and Winding Up APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Jobson's Year Book of Australian Companies ,1993 Perspectives on Corporate Citizenship Jörg Andriof,Malcolm McIntosh,2017-09-29 A number of disparate but interconnected forces such as deregulation and globalization rapid advances in communications technology and the rise in the power of the consumer and civil society have now combined to bring corporate responsibility to prominence in many corporate boardrooms In this information age the ramifications of not addressing best practice in environment workplace marketplace and community could range from bad press coverage to complete market exclusion These are perilous times for the social construct of modern capitalism In today s society successful companies will increasingly be those that recognize that they have responsibilities to a range of stakeholders that go beyond compliance with the law If in the past the focus was on enhancing shareholder value now it is on engaging stakeholders for long term value creation This does not mean that shareholders are not important or that profitability is not vital to business success but that in order to survive and be profitable a company must engage with a range of stakeholders whose views may vary greatly If in the past corporate social responsibility was simply seen as profitability plus compliance plus philanthropy now responsible corporate citizenship means companies being more aware of and understanding the societies in which they operate This means senior executives and managers being able to deal with a wide range of issues including greater accountability human rights abuses sustainability strategies corporate governance codes workplace ethics stakeholder consultation and management The aim and scope of Perspectives on Corporate Citizenship is to help capture and distil these and other emerging trends in terms of content context and processes in one concise volume With contributions from the cr me de la cr me of leading thinkers from around the world Perspectives on Corporate Citizenship is essential reading for students scholars and all serious thinkers on one of the most critical issues of our time Multinational Enterprises in Australia: a Preliminary Overview of the Effects on Employment Greg MacDonald, International Labour Office, 1994 APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service, Australia's Top 500 Companies Business Who's Who of Australia, John C.
