Francis Bacon Mark Stevens, Annalyn Swan, 2021-03-23 THE TIMES BEST ART BOOK OF THE YEAR FINALIST FOR THE PLUTARCH AWARD AND THE APOLLO AWARD There are not many biographical masterpieces but Mark Stevens and Annalyn Swan have produced one wrote the novelist John Banville of Francis Bacon Revelations By the Pulitzer prize winning authors of de Kooning An American Master this acclaimed biography contains a wealth of never before known details about one of the iconic artists of the 20th century a singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his extraordinary art whose iconoclastic charm keeps the pages turning The Washington Post Francis Bacon created an indelible image of mankind in modern times and played an outsized role in both twentieth century art and life from his public emergence with his legendary Triptych 1944 its images so unrelievedly awful that people fled the gallery to his death in Madrid in 1992 Bacon was a witty free spirit and unabashed homosexual at a time when many others remained closeted and his exploits were as unforgettable as his images He moved among the worlds of London s Soho and East End the literary salons of London and Paris and the homosexual life of Tangier Through hundreds of interviews and extensive new research the authors probe Bacon s childhood in Ireland he earned his father s lasting disdain because his asthma prevented him from hunting his increasingly open homosexuality his early design career never before explored in detail the formation of his vision his early failure as an artist his uneasy relationship with American abstract art and his improbable late emergence onto the international stage as one of the great visionaries of the twentieth century In all Francis Bacon Revelations gives us a more complete and nuanced and more international portrait than ever before of this singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his equally eruptive extraordinary art Bacon was not just an influential artist he helped remake the twentieth century figure Deep-Time

Images in the Age of Globalization Oscar Moro Abadía, Margaret W. Conkey, Josephine McDonald, 2024-05-13 This open access volume explores the impact of globalization on the contemporary study of deep time art The volume explores how early rock art research s Eurocentric biases have shifted with broadened global horizons to facilitate new conversations and discourses in new post colonial realities The book uses seven main themes to explore theoretical methodological ethical and practical developments that are orienting the study of Pleistocene and Holocene arts in the age of globalization Compiling studies as diverse as genetics visualization with the proliferation of increasingly sophisticated archaeological techniques means that vast quantities of materials and techniques are now incorporated into the analysis of the world's visual cultures. Deep Time Images in the Age of Globalization aims to promote critical reflection on the multitude of positive and negative impacts that globalization has wrought in rock art research. The volume brings new theoretical frameworks as well as engagement with indigenous knowledge and perspectives from art history. It highlights technical methodological and interpretive developments and showcases rock art characteristics from previously unknown in the global north geographic areas. This book provides comparative approaches on rock art globally and scrutinises the impacts of globalization on research preservation and management of deep time art. This book will appeal to archaeologists, social scientists and art historians working in the field as well as lovers of rock art.

Mentoring Geography Teachers in the Secondary School

Grace Healy, Lauren Hammond, Steve Puttick, Nicola Walshe, 2022-02-27. Mentoring Geography Teachers in the Secondary School supports both new and experienced mentors in developing their knowledge and skills in mentoring in geography education. Within the book, chapter authors critically consider how mentoring has been conceptualised and represented in policy and academic debate as well as examining how mentoring in geography education has been experienced and perceived in practice. Chapters in the book explore a range of perspectives, experiences and aspects of mentoring geography teachers including: Critical engagement with educational policy and practice; Perspectives from beginning geography teachers; Mentoring as a professional development opportunity; The value of engaging with the geography education community in teacher education; How mentoring meetings and conversations can support beginning geography teachers in their growth and development. This book is a vital source of support and inspiration for all those involved in developing the next generation of geography teachers. The themes of justice, agency and voice raised and engaged with implicitly and explicitly throughout this edited collection are of critical importance to mentors, beginning teachers and geography education more broadly in developing and enacting a progressive vision of mentoring.

Tracing Invisible Lines David

Prescott-Steed, 2019-02-28. TRACING INVISIBLE LINES is a critical autoethnographic text built around Gregory Ulmer's concept of the Mystory. Dedicated to the enhancement of imagination and innovation in a digital media saturated society, Ulmer's Mystory is a creative research method that draws narratives from three domains of discourse: personal, professional, popular. Analysing these domains means generating fresh insight into the deep-seated emblems that drive the creative disposition or invariant principle of the practice-led researcher. Here the mystoriographical approach has mobilized an exploration of the interrelations between self and society, between memory and imagination as well as between industry-driven design, arts education and experimental sound art practice, prioritizing the sonic, the perambulatory, careering. As a result, the Mystory fosters critical awareness of the socio-cultural instruments of creative inspiration and perspiration. Reflexive in intent and experimental in approach, David Prescott Steed's hybrid writing style moves freely between art historical biographical and autobiographical academic and speculative moods This book's emphasis on an electronic investigative sound based practice finds it treading new ground between the sonic arts and the field of electracy through its addition of sound and music to the genre this book extends the scope of studies into Ulmer's work beyond English literature and the ocularcentric arts offering a new handbook for sonic conceptual art practice Art Deco Chicago Robert Brueggemann, 2018-10-02 An expansive take on American Art Deco that explores Chicago's pivotal role in developing the architecture graphic design and product design that came to define middle class style in the twentieth century Frank Lloyd Wright's lost Midway Gardens the iconic Sunbeam Mixmaster and Marshall Field's famed window displays despite the differences in scale and medium each belongs to the broad current of an Art Deco style that developed in Chicago in the first half of the twentieth century This ambitious overview of the city's architectural product industrial and graphic design between 1910 and 1950 offers a fresh perspective on a style that would come to represent the dominant mode of modernism for the American middle class Lavishly illustrated with 325 images the book narrates Art Deco's evolution in 101 key works carefully curated and chronologically organized to tell the story of not just a style but a set of sensibilities Critical essays from leading figures in the field discuss the ways in which Art Deco created an entire visual universe that extended to architecture advertising household objects clothing and even food design Through this comprehensive approach to one of the 20th century's most pervasive modes of expression in America Art Deco Chicago provides an essential overview of both this influential style and the metropolis that came to embody it The Illustrated London News, 1859 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 The Writers Directory, 2013 The Cumulative Book Index, 1992 A world list of books in the English language Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12 British Books in Print, 1979 Who's who in America, 2003 Who's who in the Midwest, 1996
