Global Practices on Road Traffic Signal Control Keshuang Tang, Manfred Boltze, Hideki Nakamura, Zong Tian, 2019-05-03 Global Practices on Road Traffic Signal Control is a valuable reference on the current state of the art of road traffic signal control around the world. The book provides a detailed description of the common principles of road traffic signal control using a well defined and consistent format that examines their application in countries and regions across the globe. This important resource considers the differences and special considerations across countries providing useful insights into selecting control strategies for signal timing at intersections and pedestrian crosswalks. The book's authors also include success stories for coping with increasing traffic related problems examining both constraints and the reasons behind them. Presents a comprehensive reference on country by country practices on road traffic signal control. Compiles and compares approaches across countries. Covers theories and common principles. Examines the most current systems and their implementation.

Guide to Housing and Infrastructure Standards in Town Camps Anna Flouris, Chris Tucker, Denise Foster, Michael Klerck, Vanessa Napaltjarri Davis, 2024-03-08 This Guide critically and constructively examines the infrastructure within the Town Camps of Alice Springs Mparntwe and describes the regulatory framework that applies to it and needs to be understood if urgently needed improvements to the urban environment are to be made.

Planning Australia's Healthy Built Environments Jennifer Kent, Susan Thompson, 2019-03-18 Planning Australia's Healthy Built Environments shines a quintessentially Australian light on the links between land use planning and human health. A burgeoning body of empirical research demonstrates the ways urban structure and governance influences human health and Australia is playing a pivotal role in developing understandings of the relationships between health and the built environment. This book takes a retrospective look at many of the challenges faced in pushing the healthy built environment agenda forward. It provides a clear and theoretically sound framework to inform this work into the future. With an emphasis on context and the pursuit of equity Jennifer L Kent and Susan Thompson supply specific ways to better incorporate idiosyncrasies of place and culture into urban planning interventions for health promotion. By chronicling the ways health and the built environment scholarship and practice can work together Planning Australia's Healthy Built Environments enters into new theoretical and practical debates in this critically important area of research. This book will resonate with both health and built environment scholars and practitioners working to create sustainable and health supportive urban environments.
