Prism International ,2014 Learning Disability and Everyday Life Alex Cockain, 2024-03-29 Learning Disability and Everyday Life brings into conversation ideas from social theory with thick descriptions of the everyday life of a middle aged man with learning disabilities and autism This book is markedly ethnographic in its orientation to the gritty graininess of everyday life eating drinking walking cooking talking and so on in with and alongside learning disability However preoccupation with the small coexists with a gaze intent upon capturing a bigger picture to the extent that the things constituting everyday life are deployed as prisms through and with which to critically reflect upon the wider worlds of disability and everyday life Such attention to the small and the big the micro and the macro allows this book to explore the ordinary and everyday ways meanings about normalcy and abnormalcy ability and disability are put together enacted practised made up in the sense of constituting and fabricating and crucially accomplished through and between people in specific and invariably contingent sociocultural discursive and material conditions of possibility This book will be of specific interest not only to students and scholars of disability but also to persons with lived experiences of disability This book will also be of interest to students and scholars of anthropology and sociology
