A satellite image of the Earth showing the Western Hemisphere. The image is a wide-angle view from space, showing the curvature of the planet. The Americas are visible in the center, with North America at the top and South America below it. The surrounding oceans, the Atlantic to the east and the Pacific to the west, are a deep blue. The landmasses show various shades of green and brown, indicating vegetation and terrain. The image is slightly tilted, giving a perspective view of the globe.
