Autograph First Graders To Make:

Whole Language Teaching, Whole-hearted Practice Monica Taylor, 2007 This seminal collection brings together the multiple perspectives of whole language educators over the course of the past thirty five years The essays illustrate the complex ways in which whole language teachers have been and continue to be political activists through their interactions with students the teachers beliefs about teaching learning and curriculum their commitment to critical thinking and social justice their collaborative engagements with other teachers their role as leaders of change in schools and communities and finally their activism in society Although many believe that we are living in a climate where the term whole language is considered taboo the contributors to this book demonstrate hopefulness for the future of whole language as Yetta and Ken Goodman write in the concluding chapter whole language is alive and well
