ANSWER

- Study implementation post-project assessments with 8-10 groups:
  - Assessment and review opportunities
  - This approach allows firms to determine their own implementation success. Other firms will need to evaluate their own performance.
  - Read the recommendations below from successful implementation groups in [link provided]
  - Implementation review and focus on specific implementation groups
- Identify barriers to implementation implementation: barriers to implementation include:
  - Inherent difficulties in implementing change
  - A good implementation environment (culture, etc.)
  - Poor initial project communication (Scope, timeline, etc.)
  - Poor implementation management (Skills, methods, etc.)
- Identify and understand common causes for implementation failure:
  - Poor project management. Project management management includes:
    - Identifying project requirements accurately, the project scope, communication
    - Identifying risks and challenges within the project requirements
    - Identifying the key stakeholders
    - A sound business plan
    - A sound budget
    - Good morale
