Create Your Own Life Magdalena Bac, Many years ago I started to work intensively on myself on my habits that didn t suit me on character traits that didn t allow me to fully achieve my goals I worked very hard to become the person I wanted to be This road was often very winding because I didn t know enough about how to help myself I learned the theory from the books I read from the training of the most popular coaches in Poland and I also had coaching for a book while I was still studying During 10 years I probably spent hundreds of hours learning something new I would face uncomfortable and ambitious tasks which I was consistently carried out thanks to which I am in the place where I wanted to be I was inspired by the stories of people who are widely regarded as exceptional and genius I blindly believed in every unique path to success of people I admired Over time I began to see the nuances that determine whether someone will be financially professionally and privately successful After reading dozens of books on self development I noticed that I missed the story of people who may not achieve extraordinary financial results may not be CEOs of the largest companies in the world but who realize themselves in everyday life The stories of people who enjoy what they have who without unnecessary haste and screaming realize their dreams For whom the goal of life is really the life itself experiencing it in difficult painful moments as well as in the moments of joy So I decided to write my own story From a girl who had no plan for herself plunged into her own dark world to one who often leads a very large team I tell the story of how I learned to appreciate myself to accept my weaknesses and ultimately how I started to love myself and became my best friend Who is this book for For young girls who feel that they want to take full responsibility for their lives but can't yet trust themselves or don't know where to start If you are tired of thoughts like I can't do it I'm insufficient I'm nobody then you should definitely do the tasks I have prepared for you Thanks to them you will be able to believe that you have influence on many aspects of your life and accept what you do not have influence on For those who need inspiration for their own development We often set ourselves a lot of goals we accomplish a lot of tasks but at the same time we feel that we are burning ourselves out and do not have the strength to get out of bed but we have taken it so far that we cannot slow down This book is meant to inspire you to let yourself go slow down and think about what you really need and who you really want to be For those who feel lonely feel like nobody loves them or supports them in difficult moments who need affection but nobody can provide it They are in relationships but feel that their partner does not give them as much love as they need Thanks to this book you will see how important it is to love yourself how important it is to communicate positively with yourself Through numerous exercises you will learn to be more grateful to yourself and through the authentic situations you will see that you always have a choice You will see that you decide what you think and feel and that emotions are a natural consequence of what you think What can you gain Get to know yourself your character traits and what you really want to do with your life and how to lead your life to be interesting Learn to love yourself which is the most important thing in achieving happiness fulfillment and harmony Make the best friend in your life who you are to yourself Learn to love yourself and accept who you are so that you can love others Get the life you want Vermont Life, 2004
