Bruce Jenner Hot Dog:

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by Warner Bros. Television Wikipedia contributors, Bruce and Chrystie Jenner's Guide to Family Fitness Caitlyn Jenner, 1978 American Men of Olympic Track and Field Don Holst, Marcia S. Popp, 2004-12-22 This book of interviews with Olympic track and field athletes highlights those whose lives have revealed courage persistence and decency both on and off the field. After their great careers ended, they went on to become authors, teachers, coaches, radio and television sports commentators, consultants, congressmen, actors, businessmen, military officers, social workers, and ministers. Many continued in athletics long after their days as Olympians. The Olympic track and field athletes include Glenn Cunningham, middle distances; Lee Calhoun, high hurdles; Ken Doherty, decathlon; Dick Fosbury, high jump; Bruce Jenner, decathlon; Abel Kiviat, middle distances; Bob Mathias, decathlon; Al Oerter, discus throw; Bob Richards, pole vault; Wes Santee, middle distances; Jackson Scholz, sprints; Bill Toomey, decathlon; Forrest Towns, high hurdles; Craig Virgin, long distances; Archie Williams, long sprints; John Woodruff, middle distances; and Olympic coaches Payton Jordan and Berny Wagner. They talk about the influences in their lives that helped them develop their values, their first memories of competition and participation in their sport, their educational experiences, the problems they faced when they were active competitors, the problems athletes today face, and many other topics. Television Detective Shows of the 1970s David Martindale, 1991 One more thing Columbo would say to the murderer during the course of his rumpled investigation and the killer would perhaps feel the noose tightening. The show of the same name was one of the most popular detective series appearing on television in the 1970s, a decade that offered a wider variety of such shows than any other time. Series beginning in the 1960s or ending in the 1980s that had episodes broadcast in the 1970s are also included in full. Four subgenres are studied: cops, private detectives, lawyers, and sleuths. Each entry is arranged alphabetically and follows the same format: cast and credits, brief remarks about the style and an episode guide, episode titles, original telecast dates, guest casts, and brief plot synopses. Comprehensive index. Ski, 1988-07 Skiing, 1982-10 Who Was Who on TV Norman Chance, 2010-12-23 The information herein was accumulated of fifty some odd years. The collection process started when TV first came out and continued until today. The books are in alphabetical order and cover shows from the 1940s to 2010. The author has added a brief explanation of each show and then listed all the characters who played the roles and for the most part the year or years the actor or actress played that role. Also included are most of the people who created the shows, the producers, directors, and the writers of the shows. These books are a great source of trivia information and for most of the older folk will bring back some very fond memories. I know a lot of times we think back and say Who was the guy that played such and such a role? Enjoy. Psyching for Slalom David Benzel, 1989 Total Television Alex McNeil, 1996 CD ROM includes live action video, photos, trivia, game, interactive TV history timeline and a searchable database.
