The Adventures of Jerry Muskrat Thornton W. Burgess, 2017-06-28 CHAPTER I Jerry Muskrat Has A Fright What was it Mother Muskrat had said about Farmer Brown's boy and his traps Jerry Muskrat sat on the edge of the Big Rock and kicked his heels while he tried to remember The fact is Jerry had not half heeded He had been thinking of other things Besides it seemed to him that Mother Muskrat was altogether foolish about a great many things Pooh said Jerry throwing out his chest I guess I can take care of myself without being tied to my mother's apron strings What if Farmer Brown's boy is setting traps around the Smiling Pool I guess he can't fool your Uncle Jerry He isn't so smart as he thinks he is I can fool him any day Jerry chuckled He was thinking of how he had once fooled Farmer Brown's boy into thinking a big trout was on his hook Slowly Jerry slid into the Smiling Pool and swam over towards his favorite log Peter Rabbit stuck his head over the edge of the bank Hi Jerry he shouted last night I saw Farmer Brown's boy coming over this way with a lot of traps Better watch out Go chase yourself Peter Rabbit I guess I can look out for myself replied Jerry just a little crossly Peter made a wry face and started for the sweet clover patch Hardly was he out of sight when Billy Mink and Bobby Coon came down the Laughing Brook together They seemed very much excited When they saw Jerry Muskrat they beckoned for him to come over where they were and when he got there they both talked at once and it was all about Farmer Brown's boy and his traps You'd better watch out Jerry warned Billy Mink who is a great traveler and has had wide experience Oh I guess I'm able to take care of myself said Jerry airily and once more started for his favorite log And what do you suppose he was thinking about as he swam along He was wishing that he knew what a trap looked like for despite his boasting he didn't even know what he was to look out for As he drew near his favorite log something tickled his nose He stopped swimming to sniff and sniff My how good it did smell And it seemed to come right straight from the old log Jerry began to swim as fast as he could In a few minutes he scrambled out on the old log Then Jerry rubbed his eyes three times to be sure that he saw aright There were luscious pieces of carrot lying right in front of him Now there is nothing that Jerry Muskrat likes better than carrot So he didn't stop to wonder how it got there He just reached out for the nearest piece and ate it Then he reached for the next piece and ate it Then he did a funny little dance just for joy When he was quite out of breath he sat down to rest Snap Something had Jerry Muskrat by the tail Jerry squealed with fright and pain Oh how it did hurt He twisted and turned but he was held fast and could not see what had him Then he pulled and pulled until it seemed as if his tail would pull off But it didn't So he kept pulling and pretty soon the thing let go so suddenly that Jerry tumbled head first into the water little book has two main storylines both featuring Jerry Muskrat In the first part Jerry gets his tail pinched in a trap the farmer s boy left near the pond His mother had warned him about traps but he was careless Soon the animals discover many traps and Grandfather Frog teaches them how to find the traps and avoid or spring them so they can stay safe which greatly puzzles the farmer s boy They are all duly warned not to take food they find lying around where it usually isn t especially very delicious food as it is often a trap Some of them have to get hurt before they really learn to be cautious In the second half of the book the animals discover that the pool of water that makes their home is shrinking Alarmed several of them set off on a journey upstream to find out what the trouble is Among them is Spotty the Turtle and here the tale echoes the old Aesop s fable of the tortoise and the hare The other animals get distracted along the journey and stop for one reason or another but Spotty just keeps plodding along so even though he s the slowest he is the first to reach the source of trouble and find out what it is Now the animals meet Paddy the Beaver and they are all intimidated his great size and the massive dam he s built They want Jerry Muskrat to talk to Paddy about the problems he s causing they figure the beaver might listen to Jerry since he s Paddy s little cousin Jerry is nervous at first but he gets his courage up to approach Paddy and finds that the beaver is a nice guy after all Source Wikipedia
