Streaming Music, Streaming Capital Eric Drott, 2023-12-29 Eric Drott undertakes a wide ranging study of the political economy of music streaming to engage in a broader reconsideration of music's complex relation to capitalism

How to Make a Living from Music David Stopps, 2024-05-01 Building a successful career in music involves abilities to manage intellectual property IP rights WIPO supports authors and performers in enhancing their knowledge of the intellectual property aspects involved in their professional work Copyright and related rights can help musical authors and performers to generate additional income from their talent

Soundtracked Books from the Acoustic Era to the Digital Age Justin St. Clair, 2022-06-15 Offering both a short history and a theoretical framework this book is the first extended study of the soundtracked book as a media form A soundtracked book is a print or digital publication for which a recorded musical complement has been produced Early examples were primarily developed for the children's market but by the middle of the twentieth century ethnographers had begun producing book and record combinations that used print to contextualize musical artifacts The last half century has witnessed the rapid expansion of the adult market including soundtracked novels from celebrated writers such as Ursula K

Le Guin Kathy Acker and Mark Z Danielewski While often dismissed as gimmicks this volume argues that soundtracked books represent an interesting case study in media consumption Unlike synchronous multimedia forms the vast majority of soundtracked books require that audience activity be split between reading and listening thus defining the user experience and often shaping the content of singing books as well Mapping the form s material evolution this book charts a previously unconsidered pathway through more than a century of recording formats and packaging strategies emphasizing the synergies and symbioses that characterize the marriage of sound and print As such it will be of value to scholars and postgraduate students working in media studies literary studies and sound studies
