Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Alexa Scarlata, 2025-05-02 The introduction and diffusion of international subscription video on demand SVOD services in the 2010s represented the most significant disruption of established national broadcast and pay TV ecologies in their long history Using an in depth Australian case study this book narrates this profound period of proliferation It also considers how incumbent commercial networks pay TV providers and public service broadcasters developed into online TV providers albeit in assorted ways In so doing it conceives of the early impact of online TV 2015 2020 more broadly and acknowledges the role of both new and old TV players The industry wide shift towards online TV over this period also impacted existing television drama production cultures SVOD services provided a fruitful avenue for the distribution of existing archives and slowly began to support the production of new Australian content with an increasingly global focus However the formal arrival of online TV certainly did not usher in the boom in original local television drama many anticipated Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Australia s Transition advances the macro analysis of television production strategies This book will be useful to students and researchers interested in media film and cultural studies

Competition Law and Policy in Digital Markets Maria Ioannidou, Bingwan Xiong, 2025-03-01 The advent of digital technologies has transformed markets and resulted in unprecedented levels of market concentration with a handful of digital giants controlling the provision of many goods and services Against these changing market dynamics Competition Law and Policy in Digital Markets A Comparative Analysis of the EU and China provides a critical comparative analysis of the application of competition law in digital markets in the EU and China The book deciphers how these two key competition law jurisdictions apply their respective competition laws against different digital giants and the potential impact of those applications in the evolution of digital markets This book first maps the characteristics of digital markets and the challenges they raise for competition law enforcement and second critically discusses decisional practice and policy developments in the EU and China The discussion identifies potential competition law problems in the digital economy and covers various types of anti competitive conduct at the intersection of consumer data protection and competition law It also identifies contentious cases querying whether competition law can act as a gap filler or whether other regulatory tools are better suited to address such problems Pioneering and timely Competition Law and Policy in Digital Markets examines the challenges posed to competition law enforcement by these new dynamics The similarities and divergent approaches between competition law enforcers in the EU and China are examined in a bid to contribute to a more transparent debate between the two

Billion Dollar Brand Club Lawrence Ingrassia, 2020-01-28 A leading business journalist takes us inside a business revolution the upstart brands taking on the empires that long dominated the trillion dollar consumer economy Dollar Shave Club and its hilarious marketing Casper mattresses popping out of a box Third Love s lingerie designed specifically for each woman s body Warby Parker mailing you five pairs of glasses to choose from You ve seen their ads You or someone you know use their products Each may appear in isolation as a rare David with the bravado to confront a Goliath but taken together they represent a seismic shift in a business model that has lasted more than a century As Lawrence Ingrassia former business and economics editor and deputy managing editor at the New York Times shows in this timely and eye opening book a growing number of digital entrepreneurs have found new and creative ways to crack the code on the bonanza of physical goods that move through our lives every day They have discovered that manufacturing marketing logistics and customer service have all been flattened where there were once walls that protected big brands like Gillette Sealy Victoria s Secret or Lenscrafters savvy and hungry innovators now can compete on price value quality speed convenience and service Billion Dollar Brand Club reveals the world of the entrepreneurs venture capitalists and corporate behemoths battling over this terrain And what fun it is It s a massive high stakes business saga animated by the personalities flashes of insight and stories behind the stuff we use every day
