France Since 1918 Second Edition:

Fascism and the Right in Europe 1919-1945 Martin Blinkhorn, 2014-07-22 This new text places interwar European fascism squarely in its historical context and analyses its relationship with other right wing authoritarian movements and regimes Beginning with the ideological roots of fascism in pre 1914 Europe Martin Blinkhorn turns to the problem torn Europe of 1919 to 1939 in order to explain why fascism emerged and why in some settings it flourished while in others it did not In doing so he considers not just the major fascist movements and regimes of Italy and Germany but the entire range of fascist and authoritarian ideas movements and regimes present in the Europe of 1919 1945 Eastern Europe Since

1970 Bulent Gokay, 2015-12-22 From the hardening grip of Soviet domination under Brezhnev to the collapse of communism and its aftermath Bulent Gokay provides the essential introduction to Eastern Europe in the last quarter of the twentieth century The Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 spelt the end of reformist communism and the tightening of Soviet control throughout Eastern Europe In spite of this several countries within the Soviet Bloc managed to retain varying degrees of independence over the next two decades Focusing on the struggle towards economic and social modernisation in the region and the competing influences of East and West in a dangerous Cold War Bulent Gokay shows how individual circumstances and diverse national characteristics made a uniform application of the Soviet model impossible and charts the growing resistance to domination and the momentous events which finally toppled Soviet power in the region Germany
