

Confirmation Name Acrostic Poem

Task: Create an acrostic poem using the letters of the Confirmation name you have chosen. You should write the letters vertically and use each letter in a word or phrase to describe why you have chosen this particular name OR explain the virtues that this saint has. This may be done on the computer or by hand on a piece of computer paper or construction paper. This poem should be neat and colorful. You may want to include a picture of the saint or symbols that represent the saint.

Acrostic Poem For The Word Confirmation:

Old Words for a New World Walter Brueggemann, 2025-02-04 Walter Brueggemann has been so effective for so long precisely because he has consistently called upon the church to see beyond the taken for granted realities it confronts by imagining God's alternative reality to recognize that the bars of its entrapment were social constructs and could just as easily be deconstructed so we could be once again enchanted by God's good news To challenge the taken for granted reality of the church and to imagine an alternative reality Brueggemann consistently takes us back to the biblical text He moves between a description of the reality that appears in front of the church and the alternative that God is preparing for God's people that begins now and moves into God's eschatological future In so doing Brueggemann seeks to unleash the power of God's words to create a new world here and now

Psalms 119 David Noel Freedman, 1999-06-30 From the Preface The alphabetic acrostic is one of the most easily identifiable poetic forms in the Hebrew Bible Examples can be found in prophetic discourse Nahum the lament over the destruction of Jerusalem Lamentations liturgical song Psalms and wisdom literature Proverbs Yet its very obviousness has tended to deflect deeper exploration of its structure and purpose Since Mowinckel denigrated the acrostics in the Psalms as a disintegration of style too often scholars have simply noted and then ignored the form There is no a priori reason that alphabetic acrostics should be less creative expressive or complex than other psalms Thus the essays collected here investigate the acrostic format as a legitimate option for Israelite poets rather than as the refuge of uninspired epigones The fruit of over twenty years close reading of these psalms the following essays reveal the poets consummate mastery of the demanding acrostic form and deserve incorporation in future discussions of biblical poetic art

Poetry and Memory in Karaite Prayer Joachim Yeshaya, 2013-11-07 In Poetry and Memory in Karaite Prayer Joachim Yeshaya offers an edition of liturgical poems which the Karaite poet Moses Dar composed in twelfth century Egypt as introductory poems for the Torah readings on each Sabbath The Hebrew text and Judaeo Arabic heading of each poem are provided in the original order attested in the manuscript NLR Evr I 802 dated to the fifteenth century Every poem comes with a commentary section consisting of English commentary essays and bilingual Hebrew English line by line annotations In the conclusion following this edition Joachim Yeshaya demonstrates how Dar's liturgical poems are among the earliest examples of the introduction of poetry Andalusian Rabbanite poetical norms and the memory of being exiled from Jerusalem into Karaite prayer

The Divine Chase Ben Bounds, 2017-12-08 God is passionately pursuing you There is a notion in our world that we must find God that it is on our shoulders to search for a hidden God If God had not or does not reveal himself we would not even know that there is a God He is self revealing and on a mission to provoke a response in us He pursues us in three fundamental ways First the act of creation itself is an incredible act of pursuit by God He is the Creator Artist with his masterpiece in mind and we are part of the tapestry of creation Second the act of inspiring a book the Bible to codify his message demonstrates God as divine author pursuing us through his written

Word Finally the act of the incarnation is the crowning act of pursuit Christ the incarnate Son of God is on a mission to rescue the love of his heart It is the perfect fixing the broken the highest becoming the lowest the resurrected lifting the dying from the very grave Gods pursuit of us takes place on his dance floor his universe his masterpiece His pursuit unfolds throughout history on our battlefields in our crucibles and through our worst trials He brings the scars of his crucible the cross into our crucibles and rescues us In responding to our pursuing God we find our greatest healing Pomegranates and Golden Bells Jacob Milgrom, 1995 Colleagues students and friends honor Professor Milgrom by celebrating his contributions to biblical and Near Eastern scholarship with special emphasis on his primary areas of expertise The first section of the book Ritual Law and Their Sources contains thirty five essays on cultic and legal issues found in the Hebrew Bible the Septuagint and texts from Qumran The second section Other Literary Historical and Linguistic Studies includes twenty four essays primarily dealing with interpretive issues in the Hebrew Bible Seeing the Psalter Bob MacDonald, 2013-01-31 Seeing the Psalter is a unique insight into the Psalms These 150 poems are at the heart of the faith of Israel and of Christendom No book of the Bible is more popular Seeing the Psalter highlights and shows the patterns of repeated word usage in each poem and across the collections of poems In this book the Psalter is read and analyzed in sequence revealing a deliberate organization and a coherent message formed over centuries how do we learn to rule in the midst of enemies Each poem is laid out in a very easy to read form For the English reader the translation is close and concordant as far as that is possible The concordance has been managed through a sophisticated database analysis of the glosses chosen Seeing the Psalter includes a complete Hebrew English and English Hebrew glossary of all words used in the Psalter The list of all uses of a Hebrew root in the Hebrew glossary enables an in depth study of word usage For the Hebrew reader or for one who wants to learn Hebrew the text is laid out in a form that enables memorization and the learning of the intricacies of translation The poetry is phrase by phrase side by side with the English Each chapter shows in color the patterns of word recurrence in the poems Many chapters show the close or distant relationships of poems with each other As you study this work you will find that all sorts of questions open themselves to you related to the history of the collections the character of the faith and the construction of the Psalter itself A comprehensive index of Biblical references names and themes is included allowing you to find things easily in the text Each major section of Seeing the Psalter contains brief summaries outlining and highlighting inter poem relationships and enabling the memorization of the whole The Psalms are the dialogue between God and his people It s not a conversation one would want to miss You will love this book and reading it will show you the love that is before all things With charts in full color The Christian Reformer, Or, Unitarian Magazine and Review , 1839 The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia Isaac Landman, Louis Rittenberg, 1939 The Phoenix and the Turtle William H.
