Sweet Wong,2018-05-02 In this book Hertha D Sweet Wong examines the intersection of writing and visual art in the autobiographical work of twentieth and twenty first century American writers and artists who employ a mix of written and visual forms of self narration Combining approaches from autobiography studies and visual studies Wong argues that in grappling with the breakdown of stable definitions of identity and unmediated representation these writers artists experiment with hybrid autobiography in image and text to break free of inherited visual verbal regimes and revise painful histories These works provide an interart focus for examining the possibilities of self representation and self narration the boundaries of life writing and the relationship between image and text Wong considers eight writers artists including comic book author Art Spiegelman Faith Ringgold known for her story quilts and celebrated Indigenous writer Leslie Marmon Silko
