My Brilliant Friends Nancy K. Miller,2019-01-01 My Brilliant Friends is a group biography of three women's friendships forged in second wave feminism. Poignant and politically charged the book is a captivating personal account of the complexities of women's bonds. Nancy K Miller describes her friendships with three well known scholars and literary critics Carolyn Heilbrun, Diane Middlebrook and Naomi Schor. Their relationships were simultaneously intimate and professional, emotional and intellectual, animated by the ferment of the women's movement. Friendships like these sustained the generation of women whose entrance into male dominated professions is still reshaping American society. The stories of their intertwined lives and books embody feminism's belief in the political importance of personal experience. Reflecting on aging and loss, ambition and rivalry, competition and collaboration, Miller shows why and how friendship's ties matter in the worlds of work and love. Inspired in part by the portraits of the intensely enmeshed lives in Elena Ferrante's Neapolitan novels, My Brilliant Friends provides a passionate and timely vision of friendship between women.

Michael Tippett Oliver Soden, 2019-04-18 A delight to read Philip Pullman Essential reading a genuine landmark publication Tom Service A BBC Radio 4 Book of the Week. The music of the British composer Michael Tippett including the oratorio A Child of Our Time five operas and four symphonies is among the most visionary of the twentieth century. But little has been written about his extraordinary life. In this long awaited first biography Oliver Soden weaves a century spanning narrative of epic scope and penetrating insight. His achievement is to have enriched our understanding not only of Tippett but of the twentieth century. Figures such as T S Eliot, E M Forster, Barbara Hepworth and W H Auden jostle in the cast list. An Edwardian world of gaslight and empire cedes to turmoil and warfare and his operas game changing attitudes to gay and civil rights against a backdrop of the Cold War and the Space Race. The result is a landmark in the study of twentieth century culture simultaneously an astonishing feat of scholarship and a story as enthralling as in any great novel.

Creative Resilience and COVID-19 Irene Gammel, Jason Wang, 2022-03-20 Creative Resilience and COVID 19 examines arts culture and everyday life as a way of navigating through and past COVID 19. Drawing together the voices of international experts and emerging scholars this volume explores themes of creativity and resilience in relation to the crisis, trauma, cultural alterity and social change wrought by the pandemic. The cultural, social and political concerns that have arisen due to COVID 19 are inextricably intertwined with the ways the pandemic has been discussed, represented and visualized in global media. The essays included in this volume are concerned with how artists, writers and advocates uncover the hope, plasticity and empowerment evident in periods of worldwide loss and struggle factors which are critical to both overcoming the COVID 19 pandemic and fashioning the post COVID 19 era. Elaborating on concepts of the everyday and the outbreak narrative, Creative Resilience and COVID 19 explores diverse themes including coping with the crisis through digital distractions, diary writing and sounds, the unequal vulnerabilities of gender, ethnicity and age, the role of visuality and creativity including comics and community theatre and the hopeful vision for the future through urban placemaking, nighttime sociability and cinema. The book fills an important scholarly gap providing foundational knowledge from the frontlines of the COVID 19 pandemic.

through a consideration of the arts humanities and social sciences In doing so Creative Resilience and COVID 19 expands non medical COVID 19 studies at the intersection of media and communication studies cultural criticism and the pandemic
