All Knowing Diary:

Living Pictures Polina Barskova, 2022-09-06 A poignant collection of short pieces about the author's hometown St Petersburg Russia and the siege of Leningrad that combines memoir history and fiction. Living Pictures refers to the parlor game of tableaux vivants in which people dress up in costume to bring scenes from history back to life. It's a game about survival in a sense and what it means to be a survivor is the question that Polina Barskova explores in the scintillating literary amalgam of Living Pictures. Barskova one of the most admired and controversial figures in a new generation of Russian writers first made her name as a poet she is also known as a scholar of the catastrophic siege of Leningrad in World War II. In Living Pictures Barskova writes with caustic humor and wild invention about traumas past and present historical and autobiographical exploring how we cope with experiences that defy comprehension. She writes about her relationships with her adoptive father and her birth father about sex wanted and unwanted about the death of a lover about Turner and Picasso and in the final piece she mines the historical record in a chamber drama about two lovers sheltering in the Hermitage Museum during the siege of Leningrad who slowly operatically hopelessly stage their own deaths. Living Pictures introduces a startlingly daring and original new voice from world literature
