30s Jim Heimann, 2003-01-01 Zoom back in time to the 1930s See original print ads for cars travel technology food liquor cigarettes movies appliances furniture defense transportation you name it all digitally mastered to look as bright and colourful as they did on the day they first hit the newsstands back cover

All-American Ads of The 30s Jim Heimann, 2025-09-29 It was the best and worst of times Prohibition ended boosting alcohol sales but the Great Depression gripped and the threat of war loomed again Yet commerce thrived with ads flaunting witty copy and ever more creative visuals pushing the new affordable luxuries like department store fashion movie magazines and modern linoleum floors 30s Jim Heimann, 2003 1900-1919 Jim Heimann, 2005 Provides a pictorial tour of advertisements from the early twentieth century including categories such as automobiles travel interiors entertainment fashion alcohol business consumer products and food and beverages

Branded Nation James B. Twitchell, 2004-09-08 Branding says James Twitchell is nothing more than commercial storytelling brands are the stories that are associated with products For example the special taste of Evian says Twitchell is in the brand not the water Branding has become so successful so ubiquitous that even institutions that we thought were above branding antithetical to branding have succumbed Such cultural institutions as religion higher education and the art world have learned to love Madison Avenue or lose market share Of course most ministers university presidents and museum directors will insist that branding has nothing to do with them but as Twitchell brilliantly demonstrates in this witty insightful examination of three of our most important cultural institutions wherever supply exceeds demand branding follows The rise of the megachurch epitomizes branding in religion From its inception the megachurch was designed not to compete with other churches but to bring in the unchurched especially men worshippers who might otherwise be home watching television or strolling through the mall on a Sunday morning The megachurches have been phenomenally popular none more so than Willow Creek Community Church just south of Chicago one of the oldest megachurches which Twitchell analyzes in Branded Nation Colleges and universities have embraced branding as they have grown more alike Especially among the top schools in the country the student bodies the faculties often even the campuses themselves are practically interchangeable What distinguishes each school is the story it tells about itself Now every institution of higher learning has its image organizers its brand managers usually in the admissions or development offices whose job it is to make their institution seem different from all the rest Even museums with their multimillion dollar Monets have seen the advantages of branding The blockbuster exhibitions often put familiar paintings in a new context that is they provide a new narrative branding the art Museums keep expanding their stores placing them not just near the entrance on the ground floor but throughout the museum in the galleries themselves Some museums such as the Guggenheim even franchise themselves

turning the institution itself into a brand In short high culture is beginning to look more and more like the rest of our culture In perhaps his most subversive observation Twitchell doesn't condemn the branding of cultural institutions On the contrary he believes that branding may be invigorating our high culture bringing it to new audiences making it a more integral part of our lives Not since Bobos in Paradise has there been such a trenchant provocative analysis of our world The Golden Age of Advertising-- the 50s Jim Heimann,2005 Second in a series of books featuring advertising by era All American Ads of the 50s offers page after page of products that made up the happy days decade The start of the cold war spurred a buying frenzy and a craze for new technology that required ad campaigns to match The nuclear age left its mark all over the advertisements with a spotlight on planes rockets and even mushroom clouds Shiny big beautiful cars abound styled to keep up with the space age Editor Jim Heimann in his essay From Poodles to Presley Americans Enter the Atomic Age explains Car designers came up with exaggerated tail fins for automobiles to express this new accelerated speed Modernist home interiors look slick and shiny with their molded plastic furniture and linoleum floors While clothing and furniture styles look strangely contemporary a testament to our current obsession with vintage some things have definitely changed A baby sells Marlboro cigarettes Also included are chapters on movies food and travel J P Cohen Service Dress Blues Michael Bowen,2011-09-30 A winning pair of protagonists Booklist Rep Pennyworth a trademark and copyright lawyer has loyally followed his wife Melissa to Milwaukee in her quest for an assistant professorship in English Literature at UWM On the night before the 2008 Army Navy Game a midshipman is found stark naked and barely alive in the lobby of a cheap motel near the Naval Academy in Annapolis The plebe's closest relatives are Ole and Lena Lindstrom a pair of aging but still scrappy Wisconsin political activists Ole and Lena have a well earned reputation for trading punches with each other So when Ole is murdered Lena becomes an instant suspect Rep and Melissa are sure that more than coincidence ties the midshipman's mugging to Ole Lindstrom's murder in Milwaukee All-American Ads Jim Heimann,2003 This book can be seen as an attempt to preserve the chronology of product advertising throughout decades of consumerism in modern history of America However it is also a great reminder and inspiring read if not an eye candy for all designers illustrators and even memorabilia collectors of the progress made in visual communications in course of many decades of changes in advertising Like a time capsule all the best and worst elements of campaigning for the products are captured in this book showing directly the climate of social cultural and political changes in and out of the country that most of the time served as a starting point for defining the look of particular design package and overall feeling of the product Again just like the rest of the series 20s 30s 40s etc this book is a great addition for any designer to get the better look over the history of art design and communication through the prism of time that has passed 20s Jim Heimann,2004 From speakeasies and luxury cars to women's liberation and much more this colourful collection of print ads explores the wide wonderful world of 20s Americana Pantone: The Twentieth Century in Color Leatrice Eiseman,Keith Recker,2011-10-19 Pantone the worldwide color
