All for Jesus Frederick Faber,2020-09-20 JESUS belongs to us He vouchsafes to put Himself at our disposal He communicates to us everything of His which we are capable of receiving He loves us with a love which no words can tell nay above all our thought and imagination and He condescends to desire with a longing which is equally indescribable that we should love Him with a fervent and entire love His merits may be called ours as well as His His satisfactions are not so much His treasures as they are ours His sacraments are but so many ways which His love has designed to communicate Him to our souls Wherever we turn in the church of God there is Jesus He is the beginning middle and end of everything to us He is our help in penance our consolation in grief our support in trial There is nothing good nothing holy nothing beautiful nothing joyous which He is not to His servants No one need be poor because if he chooses he can have Jesus for his own property and possession No one need be downcast for Jesus is the joy of heaven and it is His joy to enter into sorrowful hearts We can exaggerate about many things but we can never exaggerate our obligations to Jesus or the compassionate abundance of the love of Jesus to us All our lives long we might talk of Jesus and yet we should never come to an end of the sweet things that are to be said about Him Eternity will not be long enough to learn all He is or to praise Him for all He has done but then that matters not for we shall be always with Him and we desire nothing more He has kept nothing back from us There is not a faculty of His Human Soul which has not had to do with our salvation There is not one limb of His Sacred Body which has not suffered for us There is not one pain one shame one indignity which He has not drained to its last drop of bitterness on our behalf There is not one drop of His most Precious Blood which He has not shed for us nor is there one beating of His Sacred Heart which is not an act of love to us We read wonderful things in the Lives of the Saints about their love of God wonderful things which we dare not think of imitating They practised fearful austerities or they spent years in unbroken silence or they were ever in ecstasies or raptures or they were passionately in love with contempt and suffering or they pined and wasted away in holy impatience for death or they courted death and expired in the long tortures of an excruciating martyrdom Each one of these things separately fills us with wonder Yet put them all together conceive all the love of Peter Paul and John of Joseph and of Magdalen of all the apostles and martyrs the confessors and virgins of the Church in all ages thrown into one heart made by miracle strong enough to bold such love then add to it all the burning love which the nine choirs of multitudinous angels have for God and crown it all with the amazing love of the Immaculate Heart of our dear Mother and still it comes not near to nay it is but a poor imitation of the love which Jesus has for each one of us however lowly and unworthy and sinful we may be We know our own unworthiness We bate ourselves for our own past sins We are impatient with our own secret meanness irritability and wretchedness We are tired with our own badness and littleness Yet for all that He loves us with this unutterable love and is ready if need be as He revealed to one of His servants to come down from heaven to be crucified over again for each one of us All for Jesus, Or, The Easy Ways of Divine Love Frederick William Faber (Orat.),1902 All for Jesus, Or The Easy Ways of Divine Love Frederick William Faber (C.Or.),1855 Annual Report New York State Library,1920 Reports for 1863 90 include accession lists for the year Beginning with 1893 the apprendixes consist of the various bulletins issued by the Library Additions Bibliography History Legislation Library school Public libraries Library Leaflet ,1914 Monthly Bulletin.
