All The Sad Young Literary Men Paperback Common:

Out of Russia Adrian Wanner, 2011-06-09 Out of Russia is the first scholarly work to focus on a group of writers who over the past decade have formed a distinct phenomenon immigrants with cultural and linguistic roots in Russia who have chosen to write in the language of their adopted countries The best known among these are Andre Makine who writes in French Wladimir Kaminer who writes in German and Gary Shteyngart who writes in English Wanner also addresses the work of emerging immigrant writers active in North America Germany and Israel He argues that it is in part by writing in a language other than their native Russian that these writers have made something of a commodity of their Russianness That many of them also happen to be Jewish adds still another layer to the questions of identity raised by their work In situating these writers within broader contexts Wanner explores such topics as migration cultural hybrids and the construction and perception of ethnicity

Into the Melée Francis Mulhern, 2024-06-04 An essential collection of literary criticism from Francis Mulhern author of The Moment of Scrutiny and Culture Metaculture Into the Melée collects Francis Mulhern's insightful critical writing much of it in the hybrid literary form that Bagehot described as the review like essay and the essay like review It opens with questions of nationality from F R Leavis's efforts to assert a normatively English literary subject and Ferdinand Mount's exploration of English cultural landscapes to Tom Nairn's political vision of England and Scotland after Britain and Joe Cleary's account of Irish modernism Another cluster of texts concerns intellectuals and in one way or another the politics of revolution and counter revolution from Burke to the present There is an updated sketch of the magazine n 1 as heir to the militant traditions of Partisan Review What is literature Sartre's answer was committed literature The writer as such was of the left But culture and politics are discrepant practices inhabiting one another in permanent tension In its embrace of provisionality and its magpie curiosity Mulhern observes the essay is a mode especially well suited to the purposes of a Marxist criticism morally committed to the value of being surprised
