hundred poems including nearly a hundred previously unpublished works this unique collection showcases the intellectual range of Claude McKay 1889 1948 the Jamaican born poet and novelist whose life and work were marked by restless travel and steadfast social protest McKay's first poems were composed in rural Jamaican creole and launched his lifelong commitment to representing everyday black culture from the bottom up Migrating to New York he reinvigorated the English sonnet and helped spark the Harlem Renaissance with poems such as If We Must Die After coming under scrutiny for his communism he traveled throughout Europe and North Africa for twelve years and returned to Harlem in 1934 having denounced Stalin's Soviet Union By then McKay's pristine violent sonnets were giving way to confessional lyrics informed by his newfound Catholicism McKay's verse eludes easy definition yet this complete anthology vividly introduced and carefully annotated by William J Maxwell acquaints readers with the full transnational evolution of a major voice in twentieth century poetry The Complete Poems of Rabindranath Tagore's Gitanjali S K Paul,2006 All the Difference in the World Natalie Melas,2007 This book is about culture and comparison Starting with the history of the discipline of comparative literature and its forgotten relation to the positivist comparative method it inquires into the idea of comparison in a postcolonial world Comparison was Eurocentric by exclusion when it applied only to European literature and Eurocentric by discrimination when it adapted evolutionary models to place European literature at the forefront of human development This book argues that inclusiveness is not a sufficient response to postcolonial and multiculturalist challenges because it leaves the basis of equivalence unquestioned The point is not simply to bring more objects under comparison but rather to examine the process of comparison The book offers a new approach to the either or of relativism and universalism in which comparison is either impossible or assimilatory by focusing instead on various forms of incommensurability comparisons in which there is a ground for comparison but no basis for equivalence Each chapter develops a particular form of such cultural comparison from readings of important novelists Joseph Conrad Simone Schwartz Bart poets Aim C saire Derek Walcott and theorists Edouard Glissant Jean Luc Nancy The Mystery of It All Paul Mariani,2019-08-06 Paul Mariani has spent fifty years writing poetry that celebrates the vibrant sacramentality of life in the twilight of Modernity and writing the lives of some of our greatest modern poets This is a life spanning collection of his prose explorations of what it means to be a person of wonder and imagination Complete Poems D. H. Lawrence,1994-01-01 This collection includes all the poems from the incomplete Collected Poems of 1929 and from the separate smaller volumes issued during Lawrence's lifetime uncollected poems an appendix of juvenilia and another containing variants and early drafts and all Lawrence's critical introductions to his poems It also includes full textual and explanatory notes For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to
