All Roads Dale Ahlquist,2015-08 In an irresistible series of short sparkling chapters Dale Ahlquist defends the Catholic faith against a wide variety of attacks that come at it from all sides Combining quick wit sympathetic understanding and plenty of quotes from G K Chesterton Ahlquist takes on such things as Atheism Agnosticism Islam Protestantism Materialism Social Engineering Environmentalism as well as the many groups who openly oppose the moral and theological teachings of the Catholic Church Whether in the headlines in the classroom or in friendly late night debates the Catholic doctrine is challenged on every subject every idea every issue But conversely every conversation is a ready opportunity to demonstrate the truths of the Catholic Church In other words All roads lead to Rome

The Catholic Republic Timothy Gordon,2019-04-04 In Catholic Republic Gordon recounts our nation s clandestine history of publicly repudiating yet privately relying on Catholic ideas about politics and nature At this late hour in the life of the Church and the world America still can be saved claims Gordon if only we soon return to the Catholic principles that are the indispensable foundation of all successful republics

Siniscalchi,2016-01-07 Given the popes recent statements of their desires to implement the New Evangelization it is imperative that Catholic theologians and other intellectually engaged laypersons retrieve the vital discipline of apologetics For the New Evangelization places particular emphasis on reposing the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith due to secularization One salient method of Catholic apologetics used to be characterized by three demonstrations each of which assumes the conclusions established in the previous step s Some might think that this classical method of apologetics has been abandoned in the postconciliar Church but Siniscalchi s book updates it Unlike the classical apologetics of the preconciliar era Siniscalchi engages contemporary scholarship in a variety of academic disciplines such as philosophy history biblical studies sociology and theology to develop the steps that are necessary for showing the reasonableness of faith
