Lost in the Long Transition William L. Alexander, 2009-01-01 Presenting case studies by anthropologists, historians, political scientists, and environmental specialists, Lost in the Long Transition critically examines the impact of neoliberal economic and social policies at the local level in post-dictatorship Chile. Topics include privatization of water rights, tuberculosis and public health crises, the role of labor unions, industrial salmon farming, natural resource conservation, the political ecology of copper, struggles for affordable housing, homelessness and citizenship rights, and gender identity issues in the experiences of returned exiles.

The Marine Corps Gazette, 1976 Chile Since Independence Leslie Bethell, 1993-03-26 Chile Since Independence brings together four chapters from Volumes III, V and VIII of The Cambridge History of Latin America to provide in a single volume an economic, social and political history of Chile since independence. Historical Dictionary of the Dirty Wars David Kohut, Olga Vilella, 2010-02-18 Unlike a conventional war waged against a standing army, a dirty war is waged against individuals, groups or ideas considered subversive. Originally associated with Argentina's military regime from 1976-1983, the term has since been applied to neighboring dictatorships during the period. Indeed, it has become a byword for state-sponsored repression anywhere in the world. The first edition of this reference illustrated the concept by describing the regimes of Argentina, Chile 1973-1990 and Uruguay 1973-1985 which tortured, murdered and disappeared thousands of people in the name of anticommunism, while thousands more were driven into exile. The second edition expands the scope to include Bolivia 1971-1982, Brazil 1964-1985 and Paraguay 1954-1989. Includes a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography and over 400 cross-referenced dictionary entries on the countries' guerrilla and political movements, prominent guerrilla human rights military and political figures, local, regional and international human rights organizations and artistic figures, filmmakers, novelists and playwrights whose works attempt to represent or resist the period of repression.

Publisher Taking Power John Foran, 2005-11-17 Taking Power analyzes the causes behind some three dozen revolutions in the Third World between 1910 and the present. It advances a theory that seeks to integrate the political, economic and cultural factors that brought these revolutions about and links structural theorizing with original ideas on culture and agency. It attempts to explain why so few revolutions have succeeded while so many have failed. The book is divided into chapters that treat particular sets of revolutions, including the great social revolutions of Mexico 1910, China 1949, Cuba 1959, Iran 1979 and Nicaragua 1979, the anticolonial revolutions in Algeria, Vietnam, Angola, Mozambique and Zimbabwe from the 1940s to the 1970s, and the failed revolutionary attempts in El Salvador, Peru and elsewhere. It closes with speculation about the future of revolutions in an age of globalization with special
