The Collected Novels of José Saramago José Saramago, 2010-11-29 This essential anthology presents thirteen acclaimed works by the Nobel Prize winning author of Blindness with an introduction by Ursula Le Guin This collection available exclusively in e book form brings together twelve novels and one novella of the great Portuguese writer José Saramago From Saramago's early work like the enchanting Baltasar Blimunda and the controversial Gospel According to Jesus Christ through his masterpiece Blindness and its sequel Seeing to his later fables of politics chance history and love like All the Names and Death with Interruptions this volume showcases the range and depth of Saramago's career his inimitable narrative voice and his vast reserves of invention humor and understanding All the Names José Saramago, 2001 When a drone in the Central Registry discovers a stray unfiled birth certificate he decides to investigate the identity of the woman the first step in an obsession that will lead him to her By the Nobel Prize winning author of Blindness Reader's Guide included Reprint 60 000 first printing Frontiers Monica Narula, 2007 Significance of boundaries limits and margins of the state of technology and technique art and science of the individual of languages thoughts and convictions of faith literature and reportage contributed articles on various countries of the world The Tale of the Unknown Island José Saramago, 1999 In this richly imagined fable of love written by a 1998 Nobel Prize winner and illustrated by an award winning artist a man comes knocking at a king's door to petition a boat Readers learn where he's bound and who volunteers to be on his crew Color line art throughout The Experimental Translator Douglas Robinson, 2023-01-24 This book celebrates experimental translation taking a series of exploratory looks at the hypercyborg translator the collage translator the smuggler translator and the heteronymous translator The idea isn't to legislate traditional translations out of existence or to win some kind of literary competition with the source text but an exuberant participation in literary creativity Turns out there are other things you can do with a great written work and there is considerable pleasure to be had from both the doing and the reading of such things This book will be of interest to literary translation studies researchers as well as scholars and practitioners of experimental creative writing and avant garde art postgraduate translation students and professional literary translators Cain José Saramago, 2011-10-04 A winkingly blasphemous retelling of the Old Testament by the Nobel Prize winning author of The Gospel According to Jesus Christ The New Yorker In José Saramago's final novel he daringly reimagines the characters and narratives of the Old Testament Placing the despised murderer Cain in the role of protagonist this epic tale ranges from the Garden of Eden when God realizes he has forgotten to give Adam and Eve the gift of speech to the moment when Noah's Ark lands on the dry peak of Ararat Condemned to wander forever after he kills his brother Abel Cain makes his way through the world in the company of a personable donkey He is a witness to and participant in the stories of Isaac and Abraham the destruction of the Tower of Babel Moses and the golden calf and the trials of Job Again and again Cain encounters a God whose actions seem callous cruel and unjust He confronts Him he argues with Him And one thing we know for certain Saramago writes is that they continued to argue and are arguing still Cain's vagabond journey builds to a stunning climax that like the book itself is a fitting capstone to a remarkable career Publishers Weekly starred review This ebook includes a sample chapter of Jose Saramago's Blindness The Ethics of Public Health, Volumes I and II Michael Freeman, 2018-10-26 With a number of public health panics emerging in the past few years most recently the panic over swine flu in 2009 the publication of this two volume collection is extremely timely These two volumes cover the complete range of issues relating to the ethics of public health Topics include the relationship with bioethics questions of governance public health and human rights surveillance and privacy prevention and its limits confinement and liberty as well as detailed case studies of previous and continuing crises relating to HIV and AIDS SARS bioterrorism climate change avian flu and tobacco control There are sections also on genetic health public health and equity and public health and the developing world The two volumes include nearly 75 articles by leading thinkers and are accompanied by Michael Freeman's detailed introduction and full bibliography

Blindness José Saramago, 2013-08-23 A stunningly powerful novel of humanity's will to survive against all odds during an epidemic by a winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature An International Bestseller This is a shattering work by a literary master Boston Globe A city is hit by an epidemic of white blindness which spares no one Authorities confine the blind to an empty mental hospital but there the criminal element holds everyone captive stealing food rations and raping women There is one eyewitness to this nightmare who guides seven strangers among them a boy with no mother a girl with dark glasses a dog of tears through the barren streets and the procession becomes as uncanny as the surroundings are harrowing A magnificent parable of loss and disorientation Blindness has swept the reading public with its powerful portrayal of our worst appetites and weaknesses and humanity's ultimately exhilarating spirit This is an important book one that is unafraid to face all of the horror of the century Washington Post A New York Times Notable Book of the Year A Los Angeles Times Best Book of the Year

Global Media Giants Benjamin Birkinbine, Rodrigo Gomez, Janet Wasko, 2016-07-01 Global Media Giants takes an in depth look at how media corporate power works globally regionally and nationally investigating the ways in which the largest and most powerful media corporations in the world wield power Case studies examine not only some of the largest media corporations News Corp The Microsoft Corporation in terms of revenues but also media corporations that hold considerable power within national regional or geolinguistic contexts Televisa The Bertelsmann Group Sony Corporation Each chapter approaches a different corporation through the lens of economy politics and culture giving students and scholars a thoughtful and data driven guide with which to interrogate contemporary media industry power

Book Cipriano Algor an elderly potter lives with his daughter Marta and her husband Mar al in a small village on the outskirts of The Center an imposing complex of shops apartments and offices Mar al works there as a security guard and Cipriano drives him to work each day before delivering his own humble pots and jugs On one such trip he is told not to make any more deliveries People prefer plastic apparently Unwilling to give up his craft Cipriano tries his hand at making ceramic dolls Astonishingly The Center places an order for hundreds and Cipriano and Marta set to work until the order is cancelled and the penniless trio must move from the village into The Center When mysterious sounds of digging emerge from beneath their new apartment Cipriano and Mar al investigate what they find transforms the family s life in a novel that is both irrepressibly funny The Christian Science Monitor and a triumph The Washington Post Book World The struggle of the individual against bureaucracy and anonymity is one of the great subjects of modern literature and Saramago is often matched with Kafka as one of its premier exponents Apt as the comparison is it doesn t convey the warmth and rueful human dimension of novels like Blindness and All the Names Those qualities are particularly evident in his latest brilliant dark allegory which links the encroaching sterility of modern life to the parable of Plato s cave a remarkably generous and eloquent novel Publishers Weekly Translated from the Portuguese by Margaret Jull Costa Skylight José Saramago,2014 Published for the very first time an early novel by Nobel Laureate and literary master Jos Saramago that tells the intertwined stories of the residents of a faded Lisbon apartment building in the late 1940s Seeing José Saramago,2007-04-09 A strange protest triggers a descent into paranoia and chaos in this illuminating parable a sequel to the Nobel Prize winning author s Blindness Ursula K Le Guin The Guardian UK On election day in the capital it is raining so hard that no one has bothered to come out to vote The politicians are growing jittery Should they reschedule the elections for another day Around three o clock the rain finally stops Voters promptly rush to the polling stations as if they had been ordered to appear But when the ballots are counted more than 70 percent are blank In response to this mass act of rebellion a state of emergency is declared But are the authorities acting blindly The word evokes terrible memories of the plague of blindness that hit the city four years before and of the one woman who kept her sight Perhaps she is the one behind the blank ballots A police superintendent is put on the case What begins as a satire on governments and the dubious efficacy of the democratic system turns into something far more sinister As the story unfolds the humor is still tender but the tone darkens tension rises Ursula K Le Guin The Guardian UK The Lives of Things Jose Saramago,2013-05-07 Combining bitter satire outrageous parody and uncanny hallucinations this collection of Jos Saramago s earliest stories from the beginning of his writing career attests to the novelist s imaginative power and incomparable skill in elaborating the most extravagant fantasies Each tale is a wicked surreal take on life under dictatorship in Embargo a man drives around a city that is slowly running out of petrol The Chair recounts what happens when dictator Salazar falls off his chair and dies in the Kafkaesque Things the life of a civil servant is threatened as objects start to go missing The New York Times Index ,2000 Death with Interruptions José

Saramago,2009-09-02 This novel by the Nobel Prize winning author asks what happens when the grim reaper decides to stop reaping A novel to die for The Washington Post On the first day of the new year no one dies This of course causes consternation among politicians religious leaders morticians and doctors Among the general public on the other hand there is initially celebration flags are hung out on balconies people dance in the streets They have achieved the great goal of humanity eternal life Then reality hits home families are left to care for the permanently dying life insurance policies become meaningless and funeral parlors are reduced to arranging burials for pet dogs cats hamsters and parrots Death sits in her chilly apartment where she lives alone with scythe and filing cabinets and contemplates her experiment What if no one ever died again What if she death with a small d were to become human and fall in love This novel has many pleasures The New York Times Arguably the greatest writer of our time Chicago Tribune Adultery Paulo Coelho,2014-08-19 I want to change I need to change I m gradually losing touch with myself Adultery the provocative new novel by Paulo Coelho best selling author of The Alchemist and Eleven Minutes explores the question of what it means to live life fully and happily finding the balance between life s routine and the desire for something new Small Memories José Saramago,2009 A personal account by the late author traces his youth in Lisbon with his parents marked by frequent visits to his wise grandparents in the village of Azinhaga his older brother s tragic early death and his initial encounters with literature

The Notebook Jose Saramago,2011-05-01 Thought provoking and lyrical The Notebook records the last year in the life of Jos Saramago In these pages beginning on the eve of the 2008 US presidential election he evokes life in his beloved city of Lisbon revisits conversations with friends and meditates on his favorite authors Precise observations and moments of arresting significance are rendered with pointillist detail and together demonstrate an acute understanding of our times Characteristically critical and uncompromising Saramago dissects the financial crisis deplores Israel s punishment of Gaza and reflects on the rise of Barack Obama The Notebook is a unique journey into the personal and political world of one of the greatest writers of our time Raised from the Ground José Saramago,2012 First published in 1980 Saramago s prizewinning novel Raised from the Ground follows the changing fortunes of the Mau Tempo family poor landless peasants not unlike the author s own grandparents Set in Alentejo a southern province of Portugal known for its vast agricultural estates Saramago charts the lives of the Mau Tempos as national and international events rumble on in the background the coming of the republic in Portugal the First and Second World Wars and an attempt on the dictator Salazar s life Yet nothing really impinges on the grim reality of the farm labourers lives until the first communist stirrings Finally published for the first time in English Raised from the Ground is highly political yet full of Saramago s characteristic humour and humanity and his most autobiographical and deeply personal novel As full of love as it is of pain it is a vivid moving tribute to the men and women among whom Saramago lived as a child and a fascinating insight into the early work of this literary giant
