Grandma Rod Britten's first memory is speaking to the police on the phone staring at the body of a woman with a bullet in her brain. He is completely unable to answer the police's questions about who he is, where he is, or how he came to discover the woman, who he soon learns is his own grandmother. The killing is written off as a botched burglary, but Rod is determined to discover the truth both about his life before the amnesia and his grandmother's death. His quest entangles him with Robin, his beautiful ex-wife, who he may be falling in love with all over again, but also puts him in grave danger. What does he know about the murder that his mind won't let him remember? Edgar Award-winning author Fredric Brown, whom Mickey Spillane called my favorite writer of all time, weaves a fascinating mystery now available to a whole new generation of readers.
