All Poor Together The African Tragedy And Beyond:

All Poor Together John Hollaway,2000 John Hollaway welcomed the end of Rhodesia's UDI in 1980 and the opportunity it gave him to travel around Africa once again As a mining consultant he did just that only to find a continent that since 1960 had become impoverished crime ridden and despairing Worse the aid projects he encountered were doing nothing to make matters better So while this is a good read with its tales of encounters with the barefoot prospectors who are illegally producing more than a billion dollars a year of gold and gemstones stories of mining scams and frauds and the larger than life characters who risk their own or other people's money in Africa in the end it is the story of aid in Africa C est l homme qui fait l homme Francis B. Nyamnjoh,2015 The idea that human beings are inextricably bound to one another is at the heart of this book about African agency especially drawing on the African philosophy Ubuntu with its roots in human sociality and inclusivity Ubuntu's precepts and workings are severely tested in these times of rapid change and multiple responsibilities Africans negotiate their social existence between urban and rural life their continental and transcontinental distances and all the market forces that now impinge with relationships and loyalties placed in question Between ideal and reality dreams and schemes how is Ubuntu actualized misappropriated and endangered The book unearths the intrigues and contradictions that go with inclusivity in Africa Basing his argument on the ideals of trust conviviality and support embodied in the concept of Ubuntu Francis Nyamnjoh demonstrates how the pursuit of personal success and even self aggrandizement challenges these ideals thus leading to discord in social relationships Nyamnjoh uses a popular Ivorian drama with the same title to substantiate life world realities and more importantly to demonstrate that new forms of expression from popular drama to fiction thicken and enrich the ethnographic component in current anthropology African Mining ,2001
