Aviation Law Paul B. Larsen, Sweeney, Joseph Conrad Sweeney, 2012 The flying public airlines and governments will all agree on one date that changed commercial flying that was September 11 2001 The first edition of Aviation Law Cases Laws and Related Sources described early consequences of that event particularly compensation of victims and early tightening of aviation security Subsequently laws and regulations affecting all aspects of aviation changed so rapidly that it became difficult to set a cut off date for the second edition The rapid flow of events made an update urgent Several gaps in the materials of the first edition became evident as

Labour Regulation in International Aviation Law Yuran Shi, 2025-11-12 This book critically examines how international law can address the pressing issues of labour regulation in the airline industry highlighting the insufficiencies of current international labour standards and air law in safeguarding workers rights and improving working conditions In an era of rapid growth and globalisation within the civil aviation sector the labour landscape has become increasingly complex and hybrid characterised by diverse business models atypical employment arrangements and weakened union influence This complexity coupled with gaps in international legal frameworks leaves aviation workers vulnerable to inadequate labour protection and skewed bargaining power By delving into social and technical deficiencies the book underscores the challenges posed by forum shopping fragmented employment structures and the limitations of Comprehensive Air Transport Agreements CATAs Proposing a pragmatic crawl walk run approach the book advocates for the progressive enhancement of labour regulations starting with refining CATAs and advancing towards more comprehensive and enforceable standards This seeks to harmonise decent work principles with the demands of a liberalised aviation market Offering an in depth exploration of landmark legal cases international agreements and State practices this book provides a nuanced understanding of the interplay between international law and aviation labour This book will be of interest to researchers in labour law international law and air and space law

International Aviation Law Attila Sipos,2024-09-02

This book opens the most adventurous and passionate Chapter in the history of Humankind Aviation Aviation in our modern world is one of the latest magnificent enterprises a kind of emblematic window through which we can cast a glance into the future Into the future since the aviation industry already applies technical organisational and administrative solutions which in other walks of life will be utilised only after years or decades The airplanes have become so swift and safe that flying has turned from a reckless adventure into public transport Next to cities airports have been built from where every minute airplanes take off and depart to all the four corners of the world The once so enormous and mysterious terrestrial globe has shrunk to appear to be a tiny ball all points of which can be reached in a couple of hours This book introduces in its entirety the regulatory regime of aviation as the safest form of transport in our age which integrates exceptional spiritual and practical achievements technical innovation as well as creates significant values Air transport is one of the most regulated industry The comprehension of its context requires the knowledge of the rules of international air law Air law is a qualitatively separated part of international law with peculiar structure which has evolved by drawing on the centuries old traditions of maritime law and has developed to be one of the youngest and the most up to date branch of jurisprudence Air law is an autonomous branch of law Its uniqueness derives from the extraordinarily rigorous requirements occasionally written by blood of aviation safety and aviation security The author guides the reader into this barely familiar secluded world of aviation via 31 illustrations and the presentation of 100 legal cases The volume relies on the several decades professional experience of the author Its objectives consist in the familiarisation of the public interested in aviation with this exceptionally intriguing area of international law in the support of the everyday work of experts in the area of aviation furthermore in the enhancement of the knowledge of theoretical and practical lawyers and broadening their horizons In this book the two most important founding treaties of international air law are introduced the Chicago Convention on International Civil Aviation 1944 and the Montreal Convention on the Unification of Certain Rules for International Carriage by Air 1999 furthermore mention is made of all significant aviation law treaties The Chicago and the Montreal Conventions are timeless sources of law since their meritorious amendment barely ensued therefore the relations and the legal solutions elucidated in the book are going to serve the reader for decades

International Air Carrier Liability David Hodgkinson,Rebecca

Johnston,2016-11-10 International Air Carrier Liability brings together essential treaties and airline to airline agreements on air carrier liability safety and security and supplements these with expert commentary and analysis The examination considers the general regulatory framework of international civil aviation including the Chicago Convention and related documents and how the liability regime fits within that framework The book is divided into three parts dealing in turn with liability safety and security and civil aviation regulation Part I for example provides comment and analysis of the international air carrier liability regime how the main liability conventions operate and the application of these conventions to international carriage by air passengers baggage and cargo Given its subject matter and the universal state party participation in these conventions this book has truly global application David Hodgkinson and Rebecca Johnston aim to provide a reference aid for legal practitioners at law firms airlines manufacturers aviation related corporations and government departments and agencies as well as academics students undergraduate and post graduate and government officials regarding treaties domestic laws and documents concerned with these vital legal issues
