Ayckbourn In An Hour Playwrights In An Hour:

Ayckbourn in an Hour E. Teresa Choate, 2010 Playwrights in an Hour is a series devoted to the most produced and studied playwrights in the English language from the Greek masters to contemporary writers and written by leading authorities in the field Each short book places the playwright and his or her work in historical social and literary context

British Playwrights, 1956-1995 William W. Demastes, 1996-10-23 The year 1956 marked a point when British drama and theater fell into the hands of a group of young playwrights who revolutionized the stage During that time playwrights such as Samuel Beckett and Harold Pinter made the British theater as rich varied and vital as any national theater in history This reference chronicles the history of British theater from 1956 to 1995 by providing detailed information about the playwrights of that period Included are entries for some three dozen British playwrights active between 1956 and 1995 Entries are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use Each entry supplies biographical information the production history for particular plays a survey of the playwright's critical reception an assessment of the dramatist's work and primary and secondary bibliographies A selected general bibliography at the end of the volume directs the reader to important sources of additional information about this period in theater history Modern British Playwriting: The 1960s Steve

Nicholson, 2013-12-02 Essential for students of theatre studies Methuen Drama's Decades of Modern British Playwriting series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1950s to 2009 in six volumes Each volume features a critical analysis and reevaluation of the work of four key playwrights from that decade authored by a team of experts together with an extensive commentary on the period The 1960s was a decade of seismic changes in British theatre as in society at large This important new study in Methuen Drama's Decades of Modern British Playwriting series explores how theatre makers responded to the changes in society Together with a thorough survey of the theatrical activity of the decade it offers detailed reassessments of the work of four of the leading playwrights The 1960s volume provides in depth studies of the work of four of the major playwrights who came to prominence Edward Bond by Steve Nicholson John Arden Bill McDonnell Harold Pinter Jamie Andrews and Alan Ayckbourn Frances Babbage It examines their work then its legacy today and how critical consensus has changed over time Directing - a Handbook for Emerging Theatre Directors Rob Swain, 2011-09-29 This vital handbook for directors just starting out offers an overview of historic and current practice as well as key theories professional advice interviews with practitioners and a series of exercises to develop the director's own approach and practical skills New York Theatre Critics' Reviews, 1995 Theatre critics reviews brings you the complete reviews from these New York publications and stations whenever covered by the critic New York daily news Wall Street journal Time New York post Women's wear daily WABC TV CBS TV New York times Christian Science monitor Newsweek After Hours with P.
