Smith, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from The Bible Confession of Faith and Common Sense Being a Series of Dialogues Between a Presbyterian Minister and a Young Convert on Some Prominent and Most Commonly Disputed Doctrines of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church To Which Are Added Five Dialogues on the Grounds and Causes Of In appearing before the public as an author in these days of book making the writer of the following pages has no apology to offer but simply a statement of facts When he commenced writing he had no intention of any thing more than some articles for the Presbyterian of the West in which most of the work has appeared in successive numbers But before the articles on Decrees and Election were completed urgent requests were received from different quarters to have them embodied in some permanent form At the same time requests were made that the writer should go through all the most commonly controverted points of the Confession of Faith The field was thus enlarged beyond the original design and much encouragement to proceed was afforded by the reception of numerous testimonials as to the utility of the articles in relieving the minds of those who were in doubts and establishing those who were wavering When the first seven dialogues were completed they were embodied in a cheap pamphlet and though an edition of near two thousand was issued it was found altogether inadequate to supply the demand And as the numbers were farther continued in the Presbyterian of the West calls were received from many readers to have them all embodied together To supply this demand and to serve the cause of truth as far as possible by the work it is now issued in its present form It is perhaps proper to add that for some of the arguments used in the fifth dialogue the writer is indebted to a published sermon entitled The unpopular doctrines of the Bible by Rev A G Fairchild D D of Pennsylvania About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
