While all have reason to celebrate the greening of Christian Jewish relations since the Shoah and the promulgation of Nostra Aetate 4 few will deny that much work remains to be done by Christians and Jews seeking the best way forward that they might best serve God s purposes in the world the mission of God This book addresses that need by first surveying how each community has historically conceived of its own mission and from that stance assigned an identity to the other The text illuminates how such construals have often impeded progress and therefore need to be upgraded and supplemented But how shall this be done Converging Destinies proposes an eschatological vision and practical suggestions to summon Jews and Christians to prepare for that day when each will be both commended and reproved by the judge of all sounding a call for more determined action greater humility and cooperative effort as together Jews and Christians serve the mission of God accountable to him for how they have served him and each other in the world that he has created according to his will
