Sofia Coppola Fiona Handyside,2017-01-29 She has received numerous accolades including an Academy Award and two Golden Globes and in 2004 became the first ever American woman to be nominated for a Best Director Oscar From The Virgin Suicides to The Bling Ring her work carves out new spaces for the expression of female subjectivity that embraces rather than rejects femininity Fiona Handyside here considers the careful counter balance of vulnerability with the possibilities and pleasures of being female in Coppola s films albeit for the white and the privileged through their recurrent themes of girlhood fame power sex and celebrity Chapters reveal a post feminist aesthetic that offers sustained intimate engagements with female characters These characters inhabit luminous worlds of girlish adornments light and sparkle and yet find homes in unexpected places from hotels to swimming pools palaces to strip clubs resisting stereotypes and the ordinary In this original study Handyside brings critical attention to a rare female auteur and in so doing contributes to important analyses of post feminism authorship in film and the growing field of girlhood studies Eye of the Storm King. Portraits in Poetry Duncan A. Rouch,2018-12-27 Duncan Rouch first began writing poems as portraits of people who he met overseas to remember and honour them Here in this book are new poems of that portrait type These poems also connect to the idea that it would be useful to acknowledge the positive characteristics of people This concept is a response to people in the public eye being generally criticised on and on and on by the media Also here are poems to reflect on challenges that people face in life from both internal and external issues including domestic and institutional violence These poems then often have an emotionally darker feel though often with at least a little light open for hope
