The Challenge of Modernizing Islam Christine Douglass-Williams, 2019-01-15 The entire foreign policy and much of the domestic policy of the United States and other Western governments is based on the proposition that the vast majority of Muslims are moderate and peaceful including those who are emigrating in large numbers to Europe and North America But as Islamist groups and many mosques radicalize peaceful Muslims and appeal to the teachings of the Koran Hadith and Sunnah it is imperative for moderates and reformists to articulate a vision of Islam and an exegesis of Islamic texts that can withstand the challenge of Islamists and the ulema who have declared the sanctity and immutability of the text. Instead they must reestablish a firm foundation of Islam that is modernized, genuinely peaceful, tolerant, pluralistic and compatible with secular governance, the freedom of speech, human rights and equality. The Challenge of Modernizing Islam is the first major effort to provide that foundation. Veteran journalist Christine Douglass Williams interviews foremost moderate and reformist Muslims in the Western world. She asks them tough questions about how they deal with problematic Koran passages, how they intend to get their message across to the Muslim world and more. Their answers are revelatory even in the ways in which they disagree with one another. Douglass Williams has captured the Islamic Reformist movement in its full intellectual ferment, laying bare the tensions and triumphs of the Reformers. In the book's second half, she adds a crucial series of searingly honest and illuminating reflections on the challenges the reformers face, the chances they have of succeeding and the implications of their struggle for the future of the Western world and of all free people. Illuminating, engaging and thought provoking, The Challenge of Modernizing Islam is an essential text for understanding the future of the United States and the West and the implications of Muslim moderates' struggle for the free world.      Extremism, Free Speech and Counter-Terrorism Law and Policy Ian Cram, 2019-03-27

This edited collection addresses a number of free speech vs security concerns that are engaged by counter terrorism law and policy makers across a number of liberal democracies and explores the delicate balance between free speech and the censoring of views that promote hatred or clash with fundamental democratic values. It does this by looking at the perspectives and level of disagreement between those who consider today's counter terrorism and extremism strategies to be a soft and liberal approach and those who believe these strategies disproportionately impact freedom of expression and association and non violent political dissent. The contributors include academics, practicing lawyers and think tank analysts who examine whether universities and schools are incubators of violent radicalism and debate and whether the views of extremist speakers and hate preachers need to be censored. Outside the UK, critical discussion of the regulation of counter terrorism, extremism and free speech in other liberal democracies is also offered. This book will be of great interest to researchers and practitioners with interests in extremism, terrorism, civil rights and freedom of speech.      Islam and Muslims in the West Adis Duderija, Halim Rane, 2018-07-27

This book analyzes the development of Islam and Muslim communities in the West, including influences from abroad, relations with the state and society and internal community dynamics. The project examines the emergence of Islam in the West in relation to the place of Muslim communities as part of the social fabric of Western societies. It provides an overview of the major issues and debates that have arisen over the last three to four decades surrounding the presence of new Muslim communities residing in Western liberal democracies. As such, the volume is an ideal text for courses focusing on Islam and Muslim communities in the West.      Living Out Sexuality and Faith Joseph N. Goh, 2017-12-15 Sexuality, religion and faith often have complex and conflicting interactions on both personal and societal levels Numerous studies have been conducted on queer subjects but they have predominantly focused on Western expressions of faith and queer identities This book contributes to the wider scholarship on queer subjects by drawing on actual lived experiences of self identifying gay and bisexual men in Malaysia It discusses what we can learn from the realities of their lives that intersect with their religious spiritual theological or humanistic values in an Asian context Analysed within the critical frameworks of queer theory and queer sexual theology this study divulges the meanings ascribed to sexual identities and practices as well as conceptualisations of masculinity sexual desire love and intimate physical connections It also lays bare the complex negotiations between gender desire and spirit and how they can affect one another Tying fascinating case studies and underexplored Asian theologies with wider conversations around sexuality and faith this book will be of significant interest to scholars working in religious studies theology queer studies sexuality studies and Asian studies

Canadian Immigration and South Asian Immigrants Abdur Rahim, 2014-09-19 South Asian immigrants have made a significant contribution to the Canadian mosaic. However, their trials and tribulations and their successes and failures constitute a story that remains untold. To know of their arrivals, their struggles to beat the odds as well as their successes is to read a story of hard work, tireless effort to make it, of the commitment to belong and of ultimate success. This process not only re-shaped them from who they were to who they are now but also re-shaped Canada that we know today. Their influence can be felt in the arts and sciences, the humanities and in politics, community works and in social services. This book is an attempt to understand the what and how of that unfolding process and also to know the real concerns about the conditions of Canada's ethnic minority population. South Asian Canadians and their children in particular.
