The Photographic Paradigm Annette W. Balkema, Henk Slager, 1997 Opstellen over de fotografie en fotografische zienswijzen als paradigma in de hedendaagse beeldende kunst      Coding and Representation from the Nineteenth Century to the Present Anne Chapman, Natalie Hume, 2021-05-10 An exploration of trends and cultures connected to electrical telegraphy and recent digital communications this collection emerges from the research project Scrambled Messages The Telegraphic Imaginary 1866 1900 which investigated cultural phenomena relating to the 1866 transatlantic telegraph It interrogates the ways in which society politics literature and art are imbricated with changing communications technologies from the mid nineteenth century to the present Contributors consider control imperialism and capital as well as utopianism and hope grappling with the ways in which human connections and their messages continue to be shaped by communications infrastructures      Photography and Literature in the Twentieth Century David Cunningham, Sas Mays, Andrew Fisher, 2009-01-14 Photography and Literature in the Twentieth Century offers an accessible and fresh approach to an object of interdisciplinary research that is currently receiving increased international attention Providing a broad historical schema and examining pivotal moments within it the collection brings together a range of writers and practitioners who help to guide the reader through a historical cross section of current work in this area Unlike most existing studies this volume considers both key literary figures from Proust to Sebald and photographic practitioners from Heartfield to Sekula in order to give a commanding overview of its subject that is both well informed and often ground breaking With original and accessible essays by acknowledged experts in the field this is a book that should be of interest not only to students and teachers in departments of literature and photography but also to those in cultural studies and art history as well as photographic artists      Allan Sekula , 1995      Fish Story Allan Sekula, Benjamin H.D. Buchloh, 1995      Industries of Architecture Katie Lloyd Thomas, Tilo Amhoff, Nick Beech, 2015-11-06 At a time when the technologies and techniques of producing the built environment are undergoing significant change this book makes central architecture's relationship to industry Contributors turn to historical and theoretical questions as well as to key contemporary developments taking a humanities approach to the Industries of Architecture that will be of interest to practitioners and industry professionals as much as to academic researchers teachers and students How has modern architecture responded to mass production How do we understand the necessarily social nature of production in the architectural office and on the building site And how is architecture entwined within wider fields of production and reproduction finance capital the spaces of regulation and management techniques What are the particular effects of techniques and technologies and above all their inter relations on those who labour in architecture the buildings they produce and the discursive frameworks we mobilise to understand them
