the Cave Plato The Allegory of the Cave was presented by the Greek philosopher Plato in his work the Republic to compare the effect of education and the lack of it on our nature The allegory is probably related to Plato s theory of Forms according to which the Forms or Ideas and not the material world known to us through sensation possess the highest and most fundamental kind of reality Only knowledge of the Forms constitutes real knowledge or what Socrates considers the good Socrates informs Glaucon that the most excellent people must follow the highest of all studies which is to behold the Good Those who have ascended to this highest level however must not remain there but must return to the cave and dwell with the prisoners sharing in their labors and honors Plato s Phaedo contains similar imagery to that of the allegory of the Cave a philosopher recognizes that before philosophy his soul was a veritable prisoner fast bound within his body and that instead of investigating reality of itself and in itself is compelled to peer through the bars of a prison

Plato,2016-07-19 Allegory of the Cave Plato The Allegory of the Cave was presented by the Greek philosopher Plato in his work the Republic to compare the effect of education and the lack of it on our nature It is written as a dialogue between Plato s brother Glaucon and his mentor Socrates narrated by the latter The allegory is presented after the analogy of the sun and the analogy of the divided line All three are characterized in relation to dialectic at the end of Books VII and VIII Plato has Socrates describe a gathering of people who have lived chained to the wall of a cave all of their lives facing a blank wall The people watch shadows projected on the wall from things passing in front of a fire behind them and they begin to give names to these shadows The shadows are as close as the prisoners get to viewing reality He then explains how the philosopher is like a prisoner who is freed from the cave and comes to understand that the shadows on the wall do not make up reality at all for he can perceive the true form of reality rather than the mere shadows seen by the prisoners Socrates remarks that this allegory can be taken with what was said before namely the analogy of the sun and the analogy of the divided line In particular he likens our perception of the world around us to the habitation in prison the firelight there to the sunlight here the ascent and the view of the upper world to the rising of the soul into the world of the mind
