MotorBoating ,1995-12 Memoirs Of A Cold War Son Gaines Post,2002-04-25 In 1951 Gaines Post was a gangly bespectacled introspective teenager preparing to spend a year in Paris with his professorial father and older brother his mother who suffered from extreme depression had been absent from the family for some time Ten years later now less gangly but no less introspective he was finishing a two year stint in the army in West Germany and heading toward Oxford on a Rhodes scholarship having narrowly escaped combat in the Berlin crisis of 1961 His quietly intense coming of age story is both self revealing and reflective of an entire generation of young men who came to adulthood before the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Vietnam War Post s experiences in high school in Madison Wisconsin and Paris his Camus influenced undergraduate years at Cornell University and his army service in Germany are set very effectively against the events of the Cold War McCarthyism and American crackdowns on dissidents American foreign and military policy in Western Europe in the nuclear age French and German life and culture crises in Paris and Berlin that nearly bring the West to war and the Post family to dissolution these are the larger scenes and subjects of his self disclosure as a contemplative conflicted Cold War agnostic His intelligent talented mother and her fragile health hover over Post s narrative informing his hesitant relationships with women and his acutely questioning sense of self worth His story is strongly academic and historical as well as political and military his perceptions and judgments lean toward no ideological extreme but remain true to the heroic ideals of his boyhood during the Second World War
