Last Essays of the Earl of Birkenhead Frederick Edwin Smith Earl of Birkenhead,1930 Hollywood Auteur Jeffrey Chown,1988-05-20 In this extensive critical survey of Francis Coppola s films Chown attempts an auteur theory analysis tempered with an interesting overview of the turbulent economic and corporate controversies that have surrounded Coppola The book follows Coppola s career in chronological order from You re a Big Boy Now 1967 to Gardens of Stone 1987 Chown is less concerned with Coppola s themes than with his financially ruinous quest for a cinema that is both commercial and personal and publicly accessible as well as visually experimental and narratively nonlinear Chown concedes that these seemingly contradictory goals are not always achieved by Coppola but he presents a timely defense of one of the most important new Hollywood filmmakers of the 1970s The book also offers a much needed introduction to Coppola s work as a screenwriter in the 1960s contrasting his early narrative skills with his evolving desire to break away from narrative structure Highly recommended for public and academic libraries community college level up Choice Hollywood Auteur details the struggle between art and commerce in Hollywood filmmaking as exemplified by the career of Francis Coppola Amid the dealmaking creative compromise and collaboration of modern American filmmaking Coppola s career demonstrates how problematic the term auteur is in this milieu Chown assesses the romanticism surrounding the cult of film directors in general and Coppola in particular He argues that ultimately the idea that the actual personal vision of one director can be expressed in big budget Hollywood films is highly suspect Yet the weight of this insightful volume suggests that Coppola may have an individualistic genius in the management of his career Chown concludes that Coppola s status as a role model for a generation of young filmmakers and directors is well earned
