Architecture for Visible Sustainability Valeriano C. Zarzo,2020 Design Studio Vol. 4: Working at the Intersection Harriet Harriss,Naomi House,2022-07-01 Without environmental justice there can be no social justice This volume sets the table for inclusive architectural engagement during a time circumscribed by pandemic climate change and inequality An esteemed group of international voices amplify interactions involving sexism racism classism homophobia transphobia and environmental catastrophe exploring how they inextricably linked Without acknowledging the interconnectedness of these injustices we will not find effective ways to halt the deepening crisis Features Marcos Cruz Casper Laing Ebbensgaard Ant n Garc a Abril Alexandra Daisy Ginsburg Ariane Lourie Harrison Kerry Holden Walter Hood Joyce Hwang Kabage Karanja V Mitch McEwen D bora Mesa Timothy Morton Stella Mutegi Brenda Parker Carolyn Steel McKenzie Wark Kathryn Yusoff and Joanna Zylinska Urban Design, 2007 Digital Dreams, Urban Realities Milena Vukmirović, Aleksandra Đukić, Eva Vaništa Lazarević, Aleksandra Krstić-Furundžić, 2025-08-16 This book is a forward thinking exploration of the future of urban development This insightful book dives deep into how cities can evolve to become more sustainable resilient and inclusive by applying the innovative principles of the New European Bauhaus By blending science technology art and culture the book provides a holistic view of ecological transition offering fresh perspectives on urban challenges It draws on a rich collection of real world case studies showcasing how these cutting edge ideas are already being applied in cities across the globe Each case study brings theory to life providing actionable strategies that urban planners architects policymakers and researchers can use to make a tangible impact in their own communities A key highlight of the book is its emphasis on the importance of community involvement in urban planning It explores how participatory design ensures that cities are not just built for people but by people creating spaces that reflect the diverse needs and aspirations of local populations In addition this book explores the role of education in preparing the next generation of urban thinkers It introduces innovative curricula designed to equip future architects planners and policymakers with the skills they need to lead the ecological transition With an international focus the book draws on examples from diverse regions giving readers a global perspective on sustainable development Whether you're looking to implement greener building practices foster community engagement or innovate within urban design this book offers valuable insights and practical tools for making cities not just livable but truly thriving This book is an essential read for anyone invested in the future of urban living Ready to be part of the movement towards sustainable beautiful and inclusive cities This book is your guide to turning that vision into reality Living Architecture, Living Cities Christopher Day, Julie Gwilliam, 2019-11-08 It's widely accepted that our environment is in crisis Less widely recognized is that three quarters of environmental damage is due to cities the places where most of us live As this powerful new book elucidates global sustainability is therefore directly dependent on urban design In Living Architecture Living Cities Christopher Day and Julie Gwilliam move beyond the current emphasis on technological change They argue that eco technology allows us to continue broadly as before and only defers the impending disaster In reality most negative environmental impacts are due to how we live and the things we buy Such personal choices often result from dissatisfaction with our surroundings As perceived environment has a direct effect on attitudes and motivations improving this can achieve more sustainable lifestyles more effectively than drastic building change with its notorious performance gap limitations As it is in places that our inner feelings and material reality interact perceived environment is place based Ultimately however as the root cause of unsustainability is attitude real change requires moving from the current focus on buildings and technology to an emphasis on the non material. Featuring over 400 high quality illustrations this is essential reading for anyone who believes in the value and power of good design. Christopher Day's philosophy will continue to inspire students with an interest in sustainable architecture urban planning and related fields

Sustainability and Privilege Gabriel Arboleda,2022-05-13 Social design the practice of designing for poverty relief is one of the most popular fields in contemporary architecture. Its advocates focusing on the architect's creativity and good intentions are overwhelmingly laudatory while its detractors concerned with the experience of its beneficiaries have dismissed it as an expression of cultural imperialism. Placed midway between innocuous celebration and radical critique Sustainability and Privilege highlights the lessons that can be learned from social design's current limitations and proposes a feasible way to improve this practice. In this broad ranging account enlivened by fieldwork and case studies Gabriel Arboleda contends that social design's invocation of sustainability often serves to marginalize and displace vulnerable populations through projects that involve experimentation of faulty alternative technologies or that result in so called green gentrification or that impose untoward economic and other burdens. Arboleda is fiercely critical of the way social design has been carried out in impoverished regions of the world most notably in Africa and Latin America. In addressing the challenges posed by issues of privilege in social design's use of sustainability the book proposes a new interdisciplinary approach called ethnoarchitecture arguing for a simpler open ended and stakeholder driven process that eliminates the casual imposition of the architect's ideas on vulnerable populations foregrounding the people's voices experience and input in social design practice
