Citizen Participation and Political Communication in a Digital World Alex Frame, Gilles Brachotte, 2015-11-06 The arrival of the participatory web 2 0 has been hailed by many as a media revolution bringing with it new tools and possibilities for direct political action Through specialised online platforms mainstream social media or blogs citizens in many countries are increasingly seeking to have their voices heard online whether it is to lobby to support or to complain about their elected representatives Politicians too are adopting new media in specific ways though they are often criticised for failing to seize the full potential of online tools to enter into dialogue with their electorates Bringing together perspectives from around the world this volume examines emerging forms of citizen participation in the face of the evolving logics of political communication and provides a unique and original focus on the gap which exists between political uses of digital media by the politicians and by the people they represent

El alojamiento colaborativo. Problemática jurídica actual de las viviendas de uso turístico. Cristina López Sánchez, 2021-12-22 En esta obra se aborda con actualidad un tema tan controvertido como el alojamiento colaborativo que en los últimos años ha venido suscitando un amplio y vivo debate. El alquiler de viviendas de uso turístico ha revolucionado el sector del alojamiento a lo que además hay que sumar el fenómeno de internet lo cual ha generado problemas acuciantes como el encarecimiento de precios la ausencia de oferta de vivienda para un arrendamiento tradicional el colapso de infraestructuras y búsquedas la gentrificación de las ciudades y los problemas de competencia desleal con la hostelería tradicional y con la elusión de controles administrativos entre otros. De ahí que resulte necesario conciliar los intereses de todas las partes afectadas lo cual se complica desde el momento en que las competencias en materia de turismo han sido recogidas en los Estatutos de Autonomía si bien es cierto que en su mayoría no tienen competencia para regular los aspectos jurídicos privados de la relación que se establece entre arrendador y arrendatario. La descoordinación entre autonomías resulta más evidente con la consecuente fragmentación del marco legal que trae consigo. Todo lo anterior ha planteado algunas cuestiones que se han ido abordando a lo largo de esta obra el boom de las viviendas de uso turístico el reparto competencial en el ámbito de las viviendas de uso turístico en España entre el Estado las Comunidades Autónomas e incluso los Municipios que pueden aprobar normas que directa o indirectamente repercutan sobre estas viviendas el arrendamiento de vivienda turística completa o por estancias la modificación del artículo 17 apartado 12 la Ley de Propiedad Horizontal las plataformas digitales de alojamiento turístico los fraudes en los alquileres turísticos ofertados en internet y el cohousing todo ello acompañado de una visión socioeconómica que pone de manifiesto la escasez de datos que permitan tanto trazar una estrategia de oferta turística adecuada como ofrecer una fotografía de la situación nacional.

Privileging Place Meaghan Stiman, 2024-06-18 Over the past several decades and increasingly since the beginning of the pandemic second homeowners have left a distinctive mark across both rural and urban America. As wealthy elites reallocate capital into housing investments other than their primary residence they extend the breadth of their influence to places as different as the backwoods of northern Maine and the cobblestone streets of Beacon Hill. Across these varied geographies the purchase of second homes has become a social problem placing pressure on housing markets igniting political tensions and putting strain on local community dynamics. While this movement of capital may be in part motivated by financial returns this alone cannot fully explain what motivates second homeowners nor does it capture the depth of their influence. Privileging Place examines how place identity which is to say a felt identification with a particular kind of place leads many affluent people to shift a portion of their capital and their lives to a new place and to exert an influence on that place in a particular way. Drawing on interviews with over sixty second homeowners as well as community observations from two years of field research in Rangeley Maine and Boston Massachusetts Meaghan Stiman looks at the ways in which place identity motivates the movements of a particular subset of second homeowners namely the upper middle class Belonging to the top 20% of American income earners these second home buyers are predominantly white and tend to concentrate their wealth in suburbs and other affluent resource rich areas In Privileging Place Stiman shows that for the upper middle class second home ownership is a way to promote an identity for themselves through the place where they buy their second home whether rural or urban But because these projects are second homes developed on the side while still holding onto the valued resources of their suburban primary residences Stiman argues that such place identity projects rely on further deepening inequalities in urban and rural places To the second homeowners these are not places to work go to school or contribute to community life but are places to imagine a version of themselves as urban or rural people and to imprint their version of urban or rural life onto the community where they live part time By tracing the way upper middle class values and practices unfold between secondary city and country homes and their suburban hometowns this book offers a detailed look into the spatial concentration and diffusion of white upper middle class privileges in the United States

Social Innovation and Democratic Leadership Marc Parés,Sonia M. Ospina,Joan Subirats,2017-04-28 This book explores new forms of democracy in practice following the 2011 global uprisings democracy that comes from below by and for the have nots Combining theories of social innovation and collective leadership it analyses how disadvantaged communities have addressed the effects of economic recession in two global cities Barcelona and New York

The Barcelona Airbnb Ban Allegra Hobbs,2021 Barcelona recently became the first major city to institute a complete ban on the short term rental company Airbnb which allows travelers to rent private rooms or residences rather than rely on hotels The ban comes as several other major European tourism hubs including Paris and Amsterdam also attempt to introduce measures to rein in Airbnb saying that the company has led to unsustainable tourism and shortages in housing This short case asks students to discuss what might follow Barcelona's ban and how Airbnb should respond

Barcelona startup Mar Galtés,2020-03-14 Barcelona la ciudad de las Olimpiadas del diseño de Gaudí del Barrio se ha convertido en el hub digital y tecnológico más importante del sur de Europa Qué hay dentro de este fenómeno Este libro es una crónica de historias de personas de empresas de instituciones que durante más de dos décadas se interrelacionan de algunos xitos sonados y de muchos fracasos desapercibidos. Es la historia del connecting the dots que hace que el concepto ecosistema tenga sentido. Internet empezó a desarrollarse de la mano de tecnologías superiores al pinchazo de la burbuja del 2000 y en muy pocos años ha cambiado la vida de las personas y de las empresas. Startups y emprendedores están hoy presentes en la primera línea de la agenda de innovación. La periodista Mar Galt vio nacer el ecosistema tecnológico de Barcelona mucho antes de que existiera la conciencia de ecosistema. Con sus crónicas en La Vanguardia ha explicado y dado visibilidad a la nueva cultura del emprendimiento tecnológico a los casos de éxito y role models que lideran esta transformación. Ahora nos presenta esta foto global de lo que ha sucedido durante más de veinte años en los que sin que hubiera ningún master plan organizado, instituciones políticas y sociales, educativas, corporaciones, startups, pero sobre todo personas han sumado iniciativas que han llevado a Barcelona a destacar en el mapa europeo de la tecnología y la innovación.
